PART 1. BUSINESS AND GENERAL INFORMATION

Item 1. BUSINESS

Business Development

On 01 October 1992, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) approved the amended Articles of the Incorporation and By-laws of Bendana, Brown, Pizarro & Associates, Inc. (incorporated on December 21, 1966) which changed the parent Company's name to Epic Holdings Corporation and effected a 5:1 stock split by reducing the par value of shares from ₱5 to ₱1 while increasing the total number of authorized shares from 20,000,000 to 100,000,000.

On 25 June 1993, the SEC approved the plan of merger of Brown Chemical Corporation and Brown Chemical Sales Corporation (absorbed corporations) into Epic Holdings Corporation as the surviving corporation. Subsequently, Epic Holdings Corp. changed its name to A Brown Company, Inc. (its current name) as approved by SEC on 01 July 1993. ABCI was thereafter listed with the Philippine Stock Exchange on February 8, 1994 and became the holding company of the Brown Group of Companies.

On 24 December 1999, the SEC approved the plan of merger of A Brown Company, Inc. ("ABCI") (surviving company) and five of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, namely: A Brown Chemical Corporation, Geoex Farms, Inc., East Pacific Investors Corporation, Terra Asia Pacific Development Manager, Inc and Victorsons Trans Cargo System, Inc. (absorbed corporations).

On 27 June 2002, the Securities and Exchange Commission approved the plan of merger of A Brown Company, Inc. (surviving corporation) and five (5) of its wholly owned subsidiaries (absorbed corporations) namely: Another Brown Co., Inc. (formerly W. Brown Co., Inc.), Geoex Drilling Corp., Northmin Mining and Development Corp., Manresa Golf and Country Club and Norphil Properties, Inc.

Investment in Power Companies

Mid 2006 marked the entry of ABCI in the energy business through its investment in Monte Oro Resources and Energy, Inc. (MORE). ABCI's 11.70% equity interest in MORE was reduced to 7.59% after the non-subscription to the increase in authorized capital stock (ACS).

In October 2014, the Parent Company sold all its 388,694,698 shares in MORE to Apex Mining Company, Inc. (APEX).

In 2010, the Parent Company subscribed 2,850,000 shares and 3,000,000 shares of Palm Thermal Consolidated Holdings Corp. (PTCHC) and Panay Consolidated Land Holdings Corp. (PCLHC) representing 95% and 100% shareholdings, respectively, at par value. On December 8, 2010, Palm Thermal Consolidated Holdings Corp. (PTCHC) acquired 100% of the outstanding capital stock of DMCI Concepcion Power Corporation, the former corporate name of Palm Concepcion Power Corporation (PCPC). PCLHC acquired thirty (30) hectares of land from DMCI Power Corporation ("DPC") with the intention of using it as the site for a coal-fired power plant project. PTCHC is the corporate entity that initiated the ABCI's entry in the power generation business. PCPC is the corporate vehicle that constructed and operated a 1x135MW coal-fired power plant project in Concepcion, Iloilo.

In 2012, Palm Thermal entered into various agreements and deeds which decreased its shareholdings in Palm Concepcion Power Corporation (PCPC) from 100% to 30% and acquired 30% equity stake in Panay Consolidated Land Holdings Corporation (PCLHC) from the previous shares of the Parent Company as of December 31, 2012.

With the divestment of AC Energy Holdings, Inc. (ACEHI) in May 2013, PTCHC acquired ACEHI's 40% interest in PCPC and PCLHC, increasing PTCHC interest in the coal-fired project to 70%. With the entry of new investor, Oriental Knight Limited (OKL) in PCPC and new subscription of the PTCHC and Jin Navitas Resources, Inc. (JNRI) in December 2013, the equity interest resulted to the following: PTCHC (39.54%); JNRI (30%) and OKL (30.46%). PTCHC's interest in PCLHC remained at 70% as of December 31, 2013.

During the third quarter of 2014, the SEC approved the Plan of Merger of PCPC and PCLHC with PCPC as the surviving entity as well as the increase in authorized capital stock (ACS) of PCPC. The merger and the increase in ACS resulted to the 30% equity interest of the Company in PCPC.

On December 2014, PCPC applied for an increase in its authorized capital stock which was approved by SEC on January 6, 2015. Palm Thermal's shareholdings have been reduced from 30% to 20% due to non-subscription on the increase of PCPC's authorized capital stock.

On January 12, 2011, ABCI and Hydro Link Projects Corp. (HLPC) (now renamed to Northmin Renewables Corp. (NRC)) entered into a deed of subscription with an aggregate share of 37,500 common shares which will be taken from the 150,000 increase of the authorized capital stock which represents 93.75% of the outstanding capital. HLPC/NRC amended its articles of incorporation to effect the deed of subscription and subsequently approved by the SEC on July 21, 2011. On December 2011, a deed of assignment was entered into by ABCI and HLPC/NRC's stockholder, assigning the remaining 6.25% of HLPC/NRC shares to ABCI bringing the total subscription to 40,000 shares. On October 2012, ABCI subscribed to the remaining 120,000 unsubscribed share capital of HLPC/NRC.

In February 2013, the company caused the incorporation of Peakpower Energy, Inc. (PEI), the holding company that ventured on projects designed to generate peaking energy in Mindanao using brand new bunker-fired engines. The company is working to develop, construct, and operate diesel power plants in Mindanao through PEI's subsidiaries: Peakpower SOCCSARGEN, Inc. (PSI) and Peakpower San Francisco, Inc. (PSFI).

On July 24, 2014, a new subsidiary, Peakpower Bukidnon Inc. (PBI), was incorporated for a 15-year Build-Operate-Maintain and Transfer agreement with the Bukidnon II Electric Cooperative Inc. (Buseco). PBI and Buseco signed a Power Purchase and Transfer Agreement for 10.4MW Diesel/Bunker-fired power plant to be constructed in Manolo Fortich, Bukidnon. On October 16, 2016, the company sold all its 100% interest in PBI to Peakpower Energy Inc. (PEI) to consolidate its investment in peaking project under one holding company.

Amendment to Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws

Reclassification of Unissued Common Shares to Preferred Shares

On April 12, 2021 and June 24, 2021, the BOD and shareholders representing at least 2/3 of the outstanding capital stock, respectively, approved the proposal to amend the Parent Company's AOI to create preferred shares by reclassifying its authorized capital stock from the from the current Three Billion Three Hundred Million Pesos (₱ 3,300,000,000.00) divided into Three Billion Three Hundred Million (3,300,000,000) Common Shares to Three Billion Three Hundred Million Pesos (₱ 3,300,000,000.00) divided into Three Billion Two Hundred Fifty Million Pesos (₱ 3,250,000,000) divided into Three Billion Two Hundred Fifty Million (3,250,000,000) Common Shares and Fifty Million Pesos (₱ 50,000,000) divided into Fifty Million (50,000,000) Preferred Shares. The reclassification of the Unissued Common Shares to create Preferred Shares will provide flexibility for the Group with respect to its prospective capital raising activities. On October 5, 2021, the SEC approved the said amendment to the AOI.

The SEC approved the said amendments on December 28, 2012.

Pursuant to Section 11 (Corporate Term) of the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines with effectivity date on February 23, 2019, the law provides in part:

“Corporations with certificates of incorporation issued prior to the effectivity of this Code, and which continue to exist, shall have perpetual existence, unless the corporation, upon a vote of its stockholders representing a majority of its outstanding capital stock, notifies the Commission that it elects to retain its specific corporate term pursuant to its articles of incorporation: Provided, That any change in the corporate term under this section is without prejudice to the appraisal right of dissenting stockholders in accordance with the provisions of this Code.”

SEC Memorandum Circular No. 22 Series of 2020 dated August 18, 2020 provides the guidelines on corporate term. The Company has not notified the Commission that it elects to retain its specific corporate term pursuant to its articles of incorporation.

The purchase of the Palm Oil Milling Plant in Surigao del Sur will allow access to an existing and operational and cost-efficient crude palm oil milling plant that is able to source palm oil fresh fruit bunches from nearby plantation farms in the region (Surigao and Agusan).

The acquisition will also provide operational and supply chain synergies with existing palm oil milling and refinery facilities in Impasug-ong, Bukidnon that are currently operated by A Brown Energy and Resources Development Inc. (ABERDI), another A Brown subsidiary. Operational and cost-cutting synergies within the group can be realized by having access to more palm oil fresh fruit bunches from nearby plantations, reduced logistics and transport costs, and being better positioned to pursue further growth opportunities in the Group's palm oil business.

Fresh Fruit Bunches (FFB) processed by SGAC for year 2025 was 21,479 MT which was lower as compared with the 22,334 MT in 2024. BLAZE CAPITAL LIMITED – 100% owned by ABCI Blaze Capital Limited (BCL) is a British Virgin Islands company incorporated on August 8, 2011, and acquired by ABCI on May 22, 2017. BCL holds a 33.33% equity interest in East West Rail Transit Corporation (EWRTC), a member of the consortium for the East-West Rail Project (EWRP).

The EWRP is a proposed 9.7-km railway line serving the España Blvd.-Quezon Ave. corridor, spanning from Lerma St. in Sampaloc, Manila, to University Ave. in Diliman, Quezon City.

The Consortium—comprising EWRTC and Alloy MTD Group (represented by MTD Philippines Inc.)—submitted an unsolicited proposal to the Philippine National Railways (PNR) to finance, construct, operate, and maintain the project. The PNR granted Original Proponent Status to the Consortium, which remains in good standing. An updated Feasibility Study was completed in 2024 to recalibrate project costs and post-pandemic ridership models.

As of December 31, 2025, the Company recognized a non-cash impairment of capitalized costs related to preliminary studies for the project. While forward implementation remains uncertain, this impairment does not preclude future value recovery should the project be reactivated, redeveloped, or sold as the regulatory and infrastructure landscape aligns.

VIRES ENERGY CORPORATION (VEC) – 100% owned by ABCI

ABCI acquired 99.995% of the outstanding capital of Vires Energy Corporation (“VEC”) from Argo Group Pte. Ltd. of Singapore in June 2020. It was incorporated on March 11, 2015 with SEC Registration No. CS201504660. In March 2023, ABCI completed its 100% ownership by acquiring the remaining 0.005% of shares.

VEC was originally set-up as a special purpose vehicle and as proponent of an Integrated Floating LNG Storage and Regasification Terminal paired with a 500 MW Floating Power Plant (FPP) Project in Simlong, Batangas City. However, market developments, including the completion of two operational LNG terminals in Batangas and the availability of domestic gas supply, prompted a reconfiguration of the project. On August 30, 2024, VEC formally notified the Department of Energy (DOE) of its decision to discontinue the floating LNG terminal and withdrew its Notice to Proceed (NTP).

The initiative transitioned into a purely onshore 2 x 450 MW LNG Combined Cycle Power Plant concept designed to operate under a Third-Party Access (TPA) model sourcing natural gas through long-term supply agreements from existing LNG terminals and available indigenous gas sources.

As of December 31, 2025, the Company publicly disclosed the suspension of pre-development activities. This decision was driven by ongoing difficulties in securing grid connection capacity and reliable gas supply, rendering the project’s timeline uncertain. While development is currently halted, this suspension does not preclude future value recovery should market conditions allow for the project’s full-scale activation, redevelopment, or eventual sale.

Likewise, the facility started accepting product for routine processing since 4th quarter of 2024. The facility currently services products in the herbals, spices, frozen goods, and medical industries.

On April 25, 2025, ISI has announced a strategic investment of ₱12.5 million in Accudata Analytical Labs Corporation (Accudata), acquiring a 35% equity stake. This partnership aims to enhance ISI E-Beam's microbiological testing capabilities and expand its integrated service offerings to clients across the food, pharmaceutical, and medical sectors. Competition

Among several real estate business developments in Cagayan de Oro City, Wee Comm Magnum Properties, Camella Homes and Johndorf Ventures Inc. Pueblo de Oro Development Corporation, and Cebu Landmasters are competitors offering same product and pricing packages as that of Adelaida Park Residences, Ignatius Enclave and Ventura Residences under the economic housing category. Ayala Land's Alegria Hills claim to be a competitor of Teakwood Hills' magnificent and endless view. For the project in Valencia City, Mountain Breeze is the project in the same category. For Butuan City, other players are the developers of Camella, Filinvest and VCDU projects. Ayala Land, Johndorf Ventures Inc., and Camella are competitors in the socialized housing. For the lot only market in Cagayan de Oro, competitor is Pueblo de Oro Development Corporation (mixed use development) and Robinson's.

Most buyers of ABCI real estate projects regard its value appreciation potentials as highly attractive. Another plus factor is the dynamism of its marketing group which is ably handled by its very able marketing personnel in tandem with its well-trained sales agents/brokers. This is the Company's commitment to offer affordable lot and house and lot packages for a well-planned project focused on family oriented and nature-themes environment. The key is security, good location and accessibility to basic locations (supermarkets, churches, public utilities, etc.). It is able to compete for its ability to attract customers which greatly depend on the quality and location of the projects, reputation as a developer, and reasonable prices and pricing schemes and the concept of a well-planned integrated community.

For the Oil Palm Mill, the competitors are Filipinas Palm Oil Plantation, Inc. (Rosario, Agusan del Sur), Kenram Industrial & Development, Inc. (Kenram, Isulan Kultan Kudarat), Agumil Philippines, Inc. (Trento, Agusan del Sur), Univanich Palm Oil Inc. (Carmen, North Cotabato) and Palm Asia Milling Corp. (Matanao, Davao del Sur).

In the sterilization sector, ISI competes with other sterilization methods, such as ethylene oxide (EtO) treatment and in-house sterilization processes. However, ISI is the only commercial provider of E-Beam sterilization in the Philippines. E-Beam sterilization has distinct advantages, including the absence of residues and the ability to treat products in their final packaging.

Currently, no other private entities offer commercial E-Beam sterilization services in the country. The Philippine Nuclear Research Institute (PNRI), a government agency, provides sterilization services on a semi-commercial basis, mainly for research and development purposes.

Sources and Availability of Raw Materials

Construction materials for the Cagayan de Oro project were mostly sourced within the city while those used for Manila Operations were also sourced in Manila. The Company is not dependent upon any single supplier. Projects are awarded to qualified bidders. Thus, the Company's suppliers are just related to supplies needed for maintenance and/or office needs. List of the principal suppliers are provided on Exhibit 1a (ABCI), 1b (SGAC) and 1c (ISI), page 105-107.

For Palm Oil Operations, fresh fruit bunch suppliers are from nearby towns of Surigao del Sur, Bukidnon, Misamis Oriental, Cagayan de Oro City, Cotabato City, Agusan del Sur, Sultan Kudarat, and North Cotabato while the buyers for the crude palm oil (CPO) are from Cagayan de Oro City, Surigao del Norte, Iligan City and Butuan City and Davao del Sur.

ISI does not require raw materials for its operations, as it provides sterilization services and does not manufacture goods. E-Beam operations is powered by electricity coming from the Meralco distribution company.

Customer Profile

For projects offered in 2025, the buyer profile demonstrates notable diversity, with 53% representing businessmen and professionals. Additionally, there has been a significant increase in house purchases by Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs), rising from 19% in 2021 to 30% in 2025. This growth among OFW buyers can be attributed to the appealing product offerings and the enhanced presence of the company and its sellers across social media platforms. The remaining market segments include government employees and individuals married to foreigners.

Payment habits are good and very keen on the project's completion. For East Cove Village, the lot buyers were 72 local and 68 from OFWs. On the other hand, the buyers for Teakwood Hills Subdivision, Valencia Estates and West Highlands are local businessmen and professionals and OFWs who want to upgrade their location. Buyers for Mountain View Homes are teachers, government employees and professionals. Adelaida Park Residences' buyers are local professionals and businessmen while Ignatius Enclave and Ventura Residences II attracted OFWs, managers and executives of private companies, businessmen, and second-home buyers. Mountain Pines Farm attracted a majority of businessmen.

Buyers for Crude Palm Oil (CPO) are from Davao, Bukidnon, Butuan, Cagayan De Oro, Iligan City. While other processed palm oil by products like Palm Acid Oil are sold in Luzon and to export buyers. Palm kernel nuts are sold in Davao and Cotabato area.

ISI currently provides sterilization services for products in the herbals and spices, frozen foods and medical industries.

Risks

A Brown Company, Inc. and its subsidiaries are exposed to financial, operational and administrative risks which are normal in the course of the business, depending on the business industry sector where each of the subsidiaries operate. It is subject to significant competition in each of its principal businesses. ABCI competes with other developers and developments to attract lot buyers and customers for its real estate and palm oil operation. Other risks that the company may be exposed to are the following: changes in Philippine interest rates, changes in the value of the Peso, changes in construction material and labor costs, power rates and other costs, changes in laws and regulations that apply to the Philippine real estate industry and changes in the country's political and economic conditions as well as global health risk or pandemic. Please refer to Note 23 of the Notes to the Audited Consolidated Financial Statements for the discussion on Financial Risk Management Objectives and Policies.

The Company and its subsidiaries have formed board committees composed by their respective directors to mitigate if not to avoid these risks. The Audit Committee and Risk Committee in cooperation with the Company's external and internal auditors exercise the oversight role in managing these risks. It also manages the financial and business risks in accordance with the company's risk profile and risk culture to strengthen the company's position when faced with these risks.

Even larger economies are confronted with downside risk on its credit ratings. Other sovereignties have also been feared to default on its obligations. Global financial crisis if not contained will have a ripple effect to other volatile economies as investors lost confidence and hold back investment.

In recent years, the Philippines enjoys an unprecedented level of confidence among international business community and has improved its global competitiveness rankings. It has received an investment grade and stable outlook on its long-term sovereign credit ratings among the three major credit ratings agencies. The improvement of credit ratings will provide a lower cost of capital on its borrowings.

In spite of opportunities, downside risks to growth exist with the presence of external and domestic shocks. The slowdown in large emerging economies, and conflicts in Middle East and Europe particularly the Ukraine-Russia conflict are some of the external forces that would pull growth opportunities down. Disasters arising from natural hazards, delays in infrastructure and reconstruction projects, logistics bottlenecks and thin power reserves are perceived to be internal forces that will hamper growth.

As the heat of the global recession hampers growth, the country may be able to weather a global economic slowdown for as long as the fiscal reforms are sustained. Regulatory agencies are also key partners in combating financial crisis through continued vigilance in their examination of compliance to rules and regulations, pro-active in implementing economic programs to sustain pump-priming activities and responsive to the needs of time like the implementation of economic bail-out plan in order to curtail the systemic effect of sectoral crisis trickling down to the whole economy that will affect all local business sectors. Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas in particular should remain steadfast in its mandate to maintain effective financial system and institute preventive and corrective measures to alleviate the ill-effects of the startling financial difficulty i.e. credit crunch resulting to home foreclosures that became the housing crisis which will ultimately affect the whole economy if not resolved in immediacy. The government should also have the capacity to fix and clean-up the mess that scandals and accusations of graft and corruption within the bureaucracy to encourage and boost foreign and domestic investors' confidence. Although this may have an indirect impact on the company's growth but if the economic slowdown will set in, inevitably this will weaken the business volume, revenue and profits. It may affect the Company's business activity – low demand, higher interest rates and stiff competition. Global pandemic like COVID-19 is creating unprecedented economic havoc due to lockdowns that limit economic activities and to practice physical distancing to curb widespread infection to the populace.

The Company is also subject to risks inherent in real estate development. There is a risk that financing for development may not be available on favourable terms; that construction may not be completed on schedule or within budget due to shortages of materials, work stoppages due to unfavourable weather conditions, unforeseen engineering, environmental and geological problems and unanticipated cost increases; that new governmental regulations including changes in building and planning regulations and delays to obtain requisite construction and occupancy permits; and developed properties may not be leased or sold in profitable terms and the risk of purchaser and/or tenant defaults.

On the other hand, there are also factors that expose the plantation to risks. These are the peace and order condition of the plantation sites, infestation of pests and diseases and farm to market road (provincial and barangay roads). Generally, the peace and order situation in the plantation area is stable. Coordination for security is made with the cooperation from the local government. Weather disturbance which causes landslides making the roads impassable also delay transporting the fruit bunches to the mill plant.

Risk factors for the mill business are as follows: i) breakdown of one major equipment such as purifier, steam boiler, turbo-alternator and/or fruit digester will paralyze the operation for days, weeks or months; ii) non-adherence to environmental restrictions may cause plant closure or work stoppage; iii) unplanned breakdown of High Power Boiler equipment for Refinery and Chiller for Fractionation can cause to cease operation.

Market risk is a potential concern for sterilization sector as demand may fluctuate due to changes in industry regulations, shifts in customer preferences, supply chain disruptions, or increased competition from alternative sterilization methods. Equipment breakdown risk is also a risk as it relies on highly specialized machinery. Any significant equipment failure could disrupt operations for an extended period, ranging from days to even months. Additionally, regulatory risks pose a threat, as non-compliance with industry regulations and restrictions could result in facility closure, penalties, or a complete operational stoppage.

Research and Development

The Company is currently doing market studies for possible projects related to energy and power.

While the ISI does not anticipate engaging in significant product-focused R&D unrelated to its core business, it continues to support product development through free dose testing and validation services. This initiative enables customers in the herbal, spice, and medical device sectors to assess compatibility and treatment efficacy for new product types prior to routine processing. These R&D support activities are designed to expand the facility's service portfolio and build customer confidence.

The Company does not expect to conduct any significant product research and development in the foreseeable future other than related to its existing operations.

Item 2. PROPERTIES

Real properties owned by A Brown Company, Inc. and its subsidiaries are shown on Exhibit IIa, IIb and IIc, page 108-121. Most of the properties were already transferred under ABCI's name. The merger of ABCI and several of its subsidiaries in December 1999 and June 2002 as mentioned in Item 1 of Part 1, has caused the inclusion of properties under East Pacific Investors Corp. (EPIC), but legally, the owner is already ABCI. For properties with individual names indicated, the documentation on the transfer of ownership is still on process. Some real properties were on lease with contracts providing for renewal options subject to mutual agreement of the parties. Rental rates are based on prevailing market rates for the said properties. Other real properties that the Company intends to acquire are still under review depending on the factor/s such as demographics and accessibility to public transport. ABCI's preferred mode of acquisition would be thru purchase or joint ventures with landowners. It continues to assess its landholdings to identify properties which no longer fit its overall business strategy and hence, can be disposed of.

Item 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company has contingent liabilities for lawsuits and various other matters occurring in the ordinary course of business. On the basis of information furnished by the legal counsel, management believes that none of these contingencies will materially affect the Company's financial position and results of operation.

Item 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

Except for the matters taken up during the Annual Stockholders' Meeting, there was no other matter submitted to a vote of security holders during the period covered by this report.

Affordability concerns must also be addressed by exploring mid-income and affordable housing segments. This ensures that housing remains accessible to a broader segment of the population. Developers should balance affordability with quality to attract buyers. This approach helps bridge the gap between the housing backlog, the financial capabilities of families, and the diverse needs of potential buyers. (Sources: Philippine Property Hub, 2025 and Santos, Knight, and Frank, 2025)

Real estate is and will still continue to be a good investment at all economic levels of society (Villegas, 2020). As shelter is one of the three basic necessities of human beings including food and clothing.

The Philippines is a place to seriously consider for those looking for a profitable return on their real estate investment. This country has a burgeoning population of young professionals and an economy that is expanding quickly, which presents enormous opportunities for real estate investors (Romano, 2023).

A number of factors have contributed to the notable progress in the Philippine residential sector over the last ten years: Increased housing supply due to developers constructing more residential units; urbanization and migration led to the development of more housing projects; government initiatives for affordable housing; infrastructure improvements that create new spaces for residential construction; more adaptable financing choices provided by financial institutions; and, the discerning tastes of a burgeoning middle class.

Due to population growth, urbanization, and the emergence of the middle class, there is an increasing demand for residential real estate in urban areas. Developers concentrate on creating mixed-use areas with a range of spaces, including retail, business, and residential. These projects offer premium real estate, mid-range condominiums, and economical homes to suit various market niches.

With its wide-ranging effects throughout the nation, the Philippine economy counts significantly on the real estate sector. Statistica (2023) reported that the Philippine real estate industry contributed 536.44 billion pesos to the national economy in 2022.

The real estate sector has also historically contributed significantly to employment growth. In the fields of construction, real estate development, property management, sales, and associated businesses, it has generated a great deal of job opportunities. According to the 2020 Annual Survey of Philippine Business and Industry (ASPBI), more than 97,000 individuals were employed in real estate, renting and business activities. (PSA, 2023)

An important driver of economic growth, infrastructure expansion and the construction of both residential and non-residential buildings contributed to a 1.8% increase in the number of building permits authorized in the first quarter of 2022. Data from PSA reported that these developments amount to 86.78 billion pesos. (PSA, 2022)

In 2024, the Philippine real estate market offers a variety of prospects, driven by a robust economy and evolving market patterns. Increased public spending has been a significant accelerator in this trajectory, which was evident in the third quarter of 2023. Opportunities for real estate development are created by government programs focused on urban revitalization and infrastructure development, especially in the neighborhoods surrounding these new projects. Growing demand for real estate locations will help developers, and as these places gain in a following, landlords will profit from increased rental returns. (Taleon in SKF, 2024)

As per report from the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas, residential property values increased in the third quarter of 2023, rising by 12.9% coming mostly from single detached and attached houses outside of the National Capital Area. This growth indicates changing consumer preferences and opportunities for market expansion outside Metro Manila. Communities and townships provide a combination of residential, educational, commercial and recreational establishment and stands to gain from the increasing desire for homes outside of the capital.

In 2024, the Philippine real estate market is expected to undergo a significant shift. With the demand for housing and office space outside of Metro Manila increasing, landlords and developers may find it advantageous to go outside of the core business districts due to shifting market dynamics. The real estate industry is still at the forefront of these dynamic changes, with the retail sector's resiliency, the demand for social and collaborative office spaces, and the recovery of the hospitality industry all contributing to the positive outlook. However, despite the annual increase in real estate developments, the Philippine housing backlog is still high. Industry players foresee that this may even increase in the next years through 2030 if the demand for socialized houses or mass houses in particular is not addressed. Sixty-seven percent (67%) of the housing needs in the country are economic and socialized houses. Demand for low cost and socialized housing is actually increasing faster than what the developers can deliver.

Plan of Action

Short Term Prospects

Real Property Development:

Being at the forefront in real estate development in Mindanao, the management and the Board of ABCI will continue to pursue its real estate projects in key cities in the Land of Promise. Overtime, ABCI was able to build a reputation and credibility to deliver first class development. It has created a niche in Mindanao and has carved a name to beckon with when it comes to property development. It shall take advantage of the continuous demand in Xavier Estates lots since it is still the preferred place due to its aura. Xavier Estates Phase V-A Ventura Residences offered Ventura Lane and Clusters B&C for the lot-only market. The strongest factor especially among the OFWs and foreigners married to a Filipino are its tree-lined streets now fully-grown, its in-house water system, strict security system, the largest clubhouse in Mindanao as well as having a luxurious view of nature on top of a plateau. Teakwood sales are picking-up and are also the preferred place compared to its competitors due to its magnificent location which is overlooking the Macajalar Bay. Coral Resort Estates is gaining popularity among local residents due to the tranquility the water front offers. Adelaida Park Residences is ABCI's response to the growing demand for economic house and lot packages. The project gained edge because of its ridgeview linear park and single houses sufficiently spaced from each other. Mountain View Homes Phase 2 attracted teachers, government employees and managers. ABCI will continue to focus on increasing revenue generation and profit through innovation by introducing new products and services that would meet customer expectations and satisfaction, reduction of costs and expenses, and increasing efficiency in its operations to continuously provide the growth of shareholder value. Through its subsidiaries' diversified ventures, it will keep on pursuing businesses which will eventually replace the adhesive and chemical business ABCI was known for.

ABCI's foresight to provide healthy, environment-friendly, and low-dense community concepts to the market served as the pillar of continuing unprecedented sales. Despite the effect of pandemic to the economy, ABCI remained strong and continues to expand and diversify in other business segments.

Medium to Long-Term Prospects.

Real Property Development:

There is a rise in the demand of housing requirements for middle income, starter families and single market. To address these markets, ABCI intends to develop socialized and economic housing in Cagayan de Oro City.

The Uptown Metropolis located in the east side of Xavier Estates shall soon rise. It shall have a space for a commercial mall, shoppe houses, town houses, condominium and a central business district. This plan shall soon put the uptown area of Cagayan de Oro City in the new places to be.

ABCI is in the planning stage for the vertical market. In the pipeline are three condominium projects to be located in Uptown, Cagayan de Oro; Initao, Misamis Oriental; and Butuan City.

Another master-planned community will soon rise Tanay, Rizal.

PROSPECTS OF PALM OIL:

The palm oil industry is a promising enterprise as the palm oil continuously being considered as the most important tropical vegetable oil in the global oils and fats industry, in terms of production and trade.

Key industry players are positive about the bright prospects of increasing palm oil production in the world market not to mention the great demand from the domestic market and the prospect of eventually exporting palm oil globally. This growing demand presents an opportunity for ABERDI to expand its current crude oil capacity of 10 tons per hour to 30 tons per hour. This expansion requires an additional 2,800 hectares of oil palm plantation representing 50% of the additional requirement of 5,500 hectares. Suitable lands for expansion are available in Misamis Oriental and Bukidnon Provinces due to its strategic proximity to the mill. More importantly, these areas have adequate and ideal available land; in good climatic conditions; and has a vast potential area for oil palm plantation.

There are now seven (7) out of nine (9) milling plants in the country which are located in Mindanao. On top of this, two (2) additional milling plants are in the pipeline. Out of the nine (9) plants, two (2) have upgraded into refinery plants. ABERDI is the second next to Caraga Oil Refinery Inc. (CORI).

Plan of Action

To respond to the lack of adequate local production, the management has targeted to develop 2,000 hectares of oil palm plantation in Province of Bukidnon and Misamis Oriental areas through a growership program. As of the end of 2025, about 3,699.085 (gross area) hectares were already acquired for development, of which almost 1,547.96 hectares were planted while about 2,652.62 hectares total area potential for planting on these areas. The Company is anticipating the signing of agreements with local communities in Misamis Oriental and Bukidnon interested for its expansion program aggregating to 2,000 hectares.

The Company is also looking to pursue further growth opportunities in the Group's palm oil business in Surigao and Agusan region. Surigao Greens Agri Corp. (SGAC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of A Brown Company Inc., had executed an Asset Purchase Agreement consisting of several parcels of land with total land area of Seventy Thousand (70,000) square meters and a Palm Oil Milling Plant located in Tambis, Barobo, Surigao del Sur. The Palm Oil Milling Plant consists of a factory building and machineries with a rated capacity of 10 metric tons (MT) per hour. The purchase of the Palm Oil Milling Plant in Surigao del Sur will allow access to an existing and operational and cost-efficient crude palm oil milling plant that is able to source palm oil fresh fruit bunches from nearby plantation farms in the region (Surigao and Agusan).

ABERDI's refinery with fractionation machine has a capacity to generate RBDO at 50 MT/day if operating at full capacity. Likewise, the company is producing Palm Olein, Palm Stearin and Palm Fatty Acid Distillate in bulk sales. At present, ABERDI's facilities in Bukidnon are under care and maintenance as the Group prioritizes operations through SGAC's active milling plant in Surigao del Sur.

PROSPECTS OF POWER GENERATION:

Vision

The Philippine power sector's roadmap by 2040 is anchored on three main goals namely:

- Energy security, resiliency, affordability, and sustainability;
- Transparent and fair playing field in the power industry; and
- Electricity access for all.

At present, the country is still on its quest to obtain energy security and equity, considering the affordability and access of electric supply. However, the Philippine Power System remained generally stable and that the DOE will ensure the sustainable implementation of the rules and laws for the security of our energy supply through competition, access to bilateral markets, anti-monopoly measures, least-cost power, and the protection of the environment.

Demand and Forecast

Increase in energy demand are expected from the distinct growth in the industrial, commercial, and domestic sectors of the country. In addition, electrification continues—households in areas which are not fully grid-connected, are likely to gain better access to electricity supply in the coming years with the target to reach 100% household electrification across the Philippines by 2028.

By 2040, the country's electricity demand is projected to grow by about 5% annually. And to meet this demand including reserve requirements, a total of 43,765 MW additional capacities must come online.

Peak electricity demand is predicted at 12,285 megawatts (MW) for Luzon; 2,519 MW for Visayas and 2,278 MW for Mindanao, for 2020, according to DOE.

With the additional 237MW on 2017—comprising of 63% coal, 33% solar, and 4% oil-based sources, the energy department is expecting that enough power reserves will meet the demand. In addition, 19,934 MW of capacity is still under development with committed and “indicative” projects until 2025.

Adequate power supply across all three grids—Luzon, Visayas, Mindanao, is forecasted assuming that nothing deviates from the projections based on planned outages, the maintenance program, and the historical peaks and these projected rise in demand by DOE.

Solutions

To solve the country's energy security woes, DOE initiated the issuance of policies for resiliency, conducted of performance assessment and technical audit for all energy facilities, and reactivated the Inter-Agency Task Force on Securing Energy Facilities, among others.

DOE also called for the full cooperation of all industry stakeholders in monitoring and responding to the power demand-supply situations, they also encourage consumers to practice energy efficiency and conservation measures.

In conclusion, energy remains a crucial element in economic growth and development of any country. According to the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA), the potential of the Philippines of reaching high-income status by 2040 provided the economy grows consistently by 7.0 percent annually.

Meanwhile, the Philippines scored 4.2 out of 7 in terms of sufficiency and reliability of power supply, as showed in a World Economic Forum report, and still showing great probability of improvement in the energy industry. Strong coordination among energy stakeholders, coupled with the additional power generation capacities, are paving way in responding to the challenges of the industry.

Impact of Economic/Political Uncertainties:

The Company's performance will continue to hinge on the overall economic performance of the country. Interest rate movements may affect the performance of the real estate industry, including the Company. Good governance will definitely lead to better economy and better business environment and vice-versa. After the change of leadership as the result of the May 2022 National Elections and the 2025 Midterm elections, political stability encourages people to work better and spend more and the investors to infuse funds for additional investment. Given the other positive economic indicators like recovery in exports, sustained rise in remittances and growing liquidity in the domestic financial market, the government's projected growth targets are attainable.

The Philippines' annual average headline inflation (2018=100) for the year 2025 stood at 1.7% which was lower than the 2024 annual average inflation rate of 3.2% and still lower than the 2023 and 2022 average inflation rate of 6.0% and 5.8%, respectively.

The government should continue its commitment to take on a more intensified approach to mitigate the effects of inflation. Investments in flood control infrastructure and post-harvest facilities should be prioritized in order to stabilize the supply of key agriculture commodities. Subsidies and financial assistance to farmer beneficiaries are also available for managing rising production costs and to sustain the productivity of the sector. Other measures include increasing the agriculture sector's productivity, filling the domestic supply gap through timely and adequate importation based on ex-ante demand and supply analysis, and further strengthening the government's commitment to address anti-competitive practices.

Inflation is projected by the government to maintain at 2 to 4 percent range for 2026. Due to the fuel price shocks brought by the conflict in the Middle East, where the US and Israel ignited a regional conflict against Iran in late February 2026, BSP is projecting an average of 5.1% inflation for 2026. The conflict in the Middle East is not only affecting the price of oil products but of other commodities, including fertilizers which add to food inflation. This inflation is driven by supply shocks where the potency of monetary policy is limited. The conflict would also result in the possible transport fare hike, electricity hike and potential higher tariffs. This geopolitical tension presents a significant threat of stagflation - increased inflation and slower economic growth. In previous years, the inflation target was an appropriate quantitative representation of the BSP's medium-term price stability goal that is conducive to the balanced and sustainable growth of the Philippine economy.

The BSP Governor believed that continued and effective implementation of direct non-monetary interventions and policy reforms to alleviate supply constraints remains crucial in keeping the trajectory of inflation within the target band. Nevertheless, the BSP is closely monitoring developments and challenges to ensure that the monetary policy stance remains consistent with its price and financial stability objectives.

As part of the 8-point Socioeconomic Agenda of the Marcos Administration and as laid out in the Philippine Development Plan (PDP) 2023-2028, the government will continue to prioritize addressing the impact of inflation as it remains to be a challenge not only in the country, but throughout the globe.

The Philippines gross domestic product (GDP) grew 4.4% in 2025 which the lowest post-pandemic growth recorded and compared to the 5.6% growth in 2024. This was brought by the decline in government construction spending and the flood control corruption scandal undermined business and consumer confidence. These challenges unfolded alongside lingering global economic uncertainties. Corruption hinders economic growth by distorting markets, reducing foreign investment and wasting public funds that caused inefficient production and innovation.

For 2026, the government targets the GDP growth hitting the lower end of 6-7% as elevated global commodity prices and trade uncertainties could weigh on the growth. The headwinds are uncertainty surrounding global economic policies and geopolitical conflicts pose additional risks to domestic growth. The central bank also cited "weaker investment demand amid subdued global economic activity and geopolitical tensions".

To achieve these goals, there are risks that lie ahead. Extreme weather disturbances like global warming and strong typhoons will be the biggest roadblock. The agriculture sector challenge is to make it resilient to such shocks. Reducing the cost of food, especially of rice, is important in reducing poverty. At the same time, there's need to raise productivity in the agricultural sector by helping farmers transition to higher value crops and making technology easily accessible. Other potential downside risks also include greater volatility in capital flows, and geopolitical risks and global pandemic. Thus, the government needs to remain vigilant and consider potential repercussions to the Philippine economy.

Global Health Crisis – Pandemic (e.g. COVID-19)

However, health crisis that became pandemic will certainly have tremendous impact on the economy.

After the spread of COVID-19 led to the lockdown of the entire island of Luzon, which accounts for 73 percent of the country's GDP, economic managers were not so optimistic of its impact. In May 2023, the head of the UN World Health Organization (WHO) has declared 'with great hope' an end to COVID-19 as a public health emergency, stressing that it does not mean the disease is no longer a global threat.

On July 21, 2023, President Ferdinand R. Marcos, Jr. issued Proclamation No. 297 lifting the State of Public Health Emergency throughout the Philippines due to COVID-19 which was declared by former President Rodrigo Duterte through Proclamation No. 922 dated March 8, 2020.

The government has adopted measures including the relaxation of regulation for those affected by the epidemic, utilized programs providing unemployment/sickness benefits and established strategic commodities inventory, among others. The Socioeconomic Planning Office recommended in preparing the economy for a rebound by taking advantage of the situation and boosting infrastructure, rehabilitate the ecosystem, craft local government tourism master plans and the upgrading of facilities by the private sector. Additional suggestions include promoting domestic tourism by developing a new campaign for domestic travel, the provision of retooling measures like livelihood training, encouraging strategic investments in the field of medicine and the establishment of a Center for Disease Control-like network.

Impact on Real Estate Sales

There is a continued rise in the demand for real estate in Northern Mindanao and Caraga shown in the current sales reservations. The Company made an unprecedented move to immediately shift to the digital platform. These include regular online presence through Facebook and direct messaging to the brokers. These are also online facilities implemented to ensure continuity in equity payments and sales reservation. A challenge was posted by buyers who had difficulty transitioning from their traditional banking style to online payments but these were being responded to. There were reduced foot traffic at the onset of the pandemic to sites. However, this has gradually increased as the Company implemented safety protocols on site. Website is already upgraded.

Supply Chain Risks

There is a potential risk of shortage of construction materials and supplies because of supply issues from sources in pandemic affected countries. Shortage of imported construction materials might lead to an increase in development costs. To mitigate the impact of potential shortages, we have implemented contingency strategies such as increased inventory and advanced procurement of construction materials.

With the recommended social distancing and adoption of flexible work arrangements, our personnel and brokers' efficiency in handling administrative work (e.g. processing of sale documents; processing of government permits and license; etc.) may be impaired during the pandemic time. We have also instituted increased health awareness in all our offices and project sites. Constant disinfecting and sanitation of the offices and model houses in all project sites are done. Constant hand-washing is promoted and health and temperature monitoring is conducted with the use of thermal scanners.

We believe that the Company's available cash, including cash flow from operations and drawings from existing and anticipated credit facilities, will provide sufficient liquidity to fund our projected operating, investment, capital expenditures and debt service requirements for the next twelve months. We have also implemented a number of initiatives under our liability management program to meet our debt service requirements in the short and medium term.

No extraordinary purchase or sale of plant and equipment are expected beyond those in the regular course of the Company's operations. There are no events that will trigger direct or contingent financial obligation that is material to the company, including any default or acceleration of an obligation nor material off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements, obligations (including contingent obligations), and other relationships of the company with unconsolidated entities or other persons created during the reporting period.

Significant Change in the number of employees

The Brown Group of Companies foresees to maintain the number of employees. Hiring of employees will continue in the regular course of the business as the need arises.

Item 7. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Please see the attached Audited Parent and Consolidated Financial Statements and schedules listed in the accompanying Index to Financial Statements and Supplementary Schedules, presented herewith as Exhibit VI and Exhibit VII.

Item 8. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENT WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURES

In the best interest of the Corporation, as well as the shareholders, higher standards of governance have been followed including the change of external auditor as mandated by SRC Rule 68(3)(b), as amended. Accordingly, the Board of Directors on 02 May 2018, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, with the approval of the stockholders of A Brown Company, Inc. on 28 June 2018, has appointed SGV & Co. as the new external auditor for the year ended December 31, 2018. The recommendation has not been prompted by any disagreement that has arisen between the Corporation and the previous external auditor.

At this event, over 80 companies were recognized as the top Philippine publicly listed companies in corporate governance based on the 2021 ASEAN Corporate Governance Scorecard (ACGS) Assessment Results.

The Company was again recognized as one of the 1-Golden Arrow Awardees during the ACGS Golden Arrow Awards Night on September 28, 2023 at Okada Manila Hotel. The in-person event recognized the top Philippine publicly listed companies and insurance companies in corporate governance based on the 2022 ASEAN Corporate Governance Scorecard (ACGS) and Corporate Governance Scorecard (CGS) Assessment Results, respectively.

The ACGS measures the performance of the companies in the areas of facilitating the rights and the equitable treatment of shareholders, how they relate to their different stakeholders, ensuring transparency and accountability through timely disclosure of material information, and how the board guides the company strategically, monitors the management, and ensures the board's accountability to the company and the shareholders. The scorecard is composed of 184 questions based on publicly available disclosures on the companies' websites. It aims to raise the corporate governance standards and practices of the country and to make well-governed Philippine publicly listed companies attractive to investors.

The Golden Arrow is awarded to companies that achieved a score of at least 80 points in the ACGS Assessment. At this point, the company has exhibited observable conformance with the Philippine Code of Corporate Governance and internationally recommended corporate governance practices as espoused by the ACGS. Five (5) levels of performance in corporate governance will be conferred. Each ascending level is depicted by an increasing number of golden arrows, as follows:

• ACGS score of 80 to 89 points	1-arrow recognition
• ACGS score of 90 to 99 points	2-arrow recognition
• ACGS score of 100 to 109 points	3-arrow recognition
• ACGS score of 110 to 119 points	4-arrow recognition
• ACGS score of 120 to 130 points	5-arrow recognition

In the 2025 Golden Arrow Recognition Night on October 23, 2025 at Okada Manila given by the Institute of Corporate Directors (ICD), ABCI was awarded with 1-Golden Arrow. At this event, 142 companies received their Golden Arrow Awards based on the 2024 ASEAN Corporate Governance Scorecard (ACGS) and Corporate Governance Scorecard (CGS) Assessment Results, respectively. - ACGS score of 95 to 104 points 3-arrow recognition

The current ratio is a liquidity ratio that measures a company's ability to pay short-term obligations or those due within one year. It tells investors and analysts how a company can maximize the current assets on its statement of financial position (balance sheet) to satisfy its current debt and other payables.

Acid test Ratio or Quick Ratio

The acid-test, or quick ratio, compares a company's most short-term assets to its most short-term liabilities to see if a company has enough cash to pay its immediate liabilities, such as short-term debt.

Solvency Ratio

Solvency ratio is one of the various ratios used to measure the ability of a company to meet its long-term debts. Moreover, the solvency ratio quantifies the size of a company's after-tax income, not counting non-cash depreciation expenses, as contrasted to the total debt obligations of the firm. Also, it provides an assessment of the likelihood of a company to continue congregating its debt obligations.

Debt-to-equity Ratio

The debt-to-equity (D/E) ratio is used to evaluate a company's financial leverage and is calculated by dividing a company's total liabilities by its shareholder equity. It is a measure of the degree to which a company is financing its operations through debt versus wholly owned funds. More specifically, it reflects the ability of shareholder equity to cover all outstanding debts in the event of a business downturn. The debt-to-equity ratio is a particular type of gearing ratio.

Asset-to-equity Ratio

The asset to equity ratio reveals the proportion of an entity's assets that has been funded by shareholders. A low ratio indicates that a business has been financed in a conservative manner, with a large proportion of investor funding and a small amount of debt. A high asset to equity ratio can indicate that a business can no longer access additional debt financing, since lenders are unlikely to extend additional credit to an organization in this position.

Interest Coverage Ratio

The interest coverage ratio measures the number of times a company can make interest payments on its debt before interest and taxes (EBIT). In general, the lower the interest coverage ratio is, the higher the company's debt burden, which increases the possibility of bankruptcy.

Return on Assets (ROA)

The Return on Assets (ROA) figure gives investors an idea of how efficient the company uses the assets it owns to generate profits. The higher the ROA number, the better, because the company is earning more money on less investment.

Return on equity (ROE)

Return on equity (ROE) is a measure of financial performance calculated by dividing net income by shareholders' equity. It is considered a measure of a corporation's profitability in relation to stockholders' equity. Whether ROE is deemed good or bad will depend on what is normal among a stock's peers. A good rule of thumb is to target an ROE that is equal to or just above the average for the peer group.

Net Profit Margin

The net profit margin is a ratio formula that compares a business profits to its total expenses. The net profit margin allows analysts to gauge how effectively a company operates. The higher the net profit margin, the more money a company keeps.

Report on the Audit of the Parent Company Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying parent company financial statements of A Brown Company, Inc. (the Parent Company), which comprise the parent company statements of financial position as at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the parent company statements of comprehensive income, parent company statements of changes in equity and parent company statements of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the parent company financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the accompanying parent company financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Parent Company as at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRS) Accounting Standards.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with Philippine Standards on Auditing (PSAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent Company Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Parent Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants in the Philippines (Code of Ethics), as applicable to the audits of the financial statements of public interest entities, together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the parent company financial statements of public interest entities in the Philippines. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Parent Company Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the parent company financial statements in accordance with PFRS Accounting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of parent company financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the parent company financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Parent Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Parent Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Parent Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent Company Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent company financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with PSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these parent company financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with PSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent company financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Parent Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Parent Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the parent company financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Parent Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the parent company financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the parent company financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Report on the Supplementary Information Required Under Revenue Regulations 15-2010

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information required under Revenue Regulations 15-2010 in Note 26 to the parent company financial statements is presented for purposes of filing with the Bureau of Internal Revenue and is not a required part of the basic parent company financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of the management of A Brown Company, Inc. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic parent company financial statements. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the basic parent company financial statements taken as a whole.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Alvin M. Pinpin.

Material Accounting Policy Information

The material accounting policies that have been used in the preparation of the parent company financial statements are summarized below. These policies have been consistently applied to all years presented, unless otherwise stated.

Fair Value Measurement

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a nonfinancial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Parent Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Parent Company determines whether or not transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Parent Company has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

Financial Instruments - Initial recognition and subsequent measurement

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity to another entity.

Financial assets

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Parent Company's business model for managing them. With the exception of receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Parent Company has applied the practical expedient, the Parent Company initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss (FVPL), transaction costs. Receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Parent Company has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortized cost or fair value through OCI, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are 'solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI)' on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is referred to as the SPPI test and is performed at an instrument level. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

The Parent Company's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortized cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through OCI are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling.

Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place (regular way trades) are recognized on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Company commits to purchase or sell the asset.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

The Parent Company subsequently classifies its financial assets into the following measurement categories:

- Financial assets at amortized cost (debt instruments)
- Financial assets at FVOCI with recycling of cumulative gains and losses (debt instruments)
- Financial assets designated at FVOCI with no recycling of cumulative gains and losses upon derecognition (equity instruments)
- Financial assets at FVPL

Financial assets at amortized cost (debt instruments). The Parent Company measures financial assets at amortized cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and,
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are SPPI on the principal amount outstanding.

These financial assets are initially recognized at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method, less any impairment in value. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees and costs that are an integral part of the EIR. Losses arising from impairment are recognized in the parent company statements of comprehensive income under “Provision for ECL”.

The Parent Company’s financial assets at amortized cost include cash, receivables, receivables from related parties and deposits in escrow and refundable deposits included under “Other current assets” and “Other noncurrent assets” in the parent company statements of financial position (see Notes 4, 5, and 10).

Financial assets designated at FVOCI (equity instruments). Upon initial recognition, the Parent Company can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investments as equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI when they meet the definition of equity under PAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these financial assets are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognized as other income in the statements of comprehensive income when the right of payment has been established, except when the Parent Company benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI. Equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI are not subject to impairment assessment.

The Parent Company made irrevocable election to present in OCI subsequent changes in the fair value of all the Parent Company’s investments in golf shares (see Note 7).

(iii) Derecognition

When the Parent Company transfers its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or enters into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Parent Company continues to recognize the transferred asset to the extent of its continuing involvement. In that case, the Parent Company also recognizes an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Parent Company has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Parent Company could be required to repay.

(iv) Impairment of financial assets

The Parent Company recognizes an allowance for expected credit losses (ECLs) for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Parent Company expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

ECLs are recognized in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk (SICR) since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk (SICR) since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

For cash and deposits in escrow, the Parent Company applies the low credit risk simplification. The probability of default and loss given defaults are publicly available and are considered to be low credit risk investments. It is the Company's policy to measure ECLs on such instruments on a 12-month basis. However, when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the allowance will be based on the lifetime ECL. The Parent Company uses the ratings from Standard and Poor's (S&P), Moody's and Fitch to determine whether the debt instrument has significantly increased in credit risk and to estimate ECLs.

Financial assets are credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of those financial assets have occurred. For these credit exposures, lifetime ECLs are also recognized and interest revenue is calculated by applying the credit-adjusted effective interest rate to the amortized cost of the financial asset.

The Parent Company applies a simplified approach in calculating ECLs for receivables. Therefore, the Parent Company does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognizes a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. For trade receivables, the Parent Company has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience.

For installment contract receivables (ICR) and contract assets, the Parent Company uses the vintage analysis for ECL by calculating the cumulative loss rates of a given ICR pool. It derives the probability of default from the historical data of a homogenous portfolio that share the same origination period. The information on the number of defaults during fixed time intervals of the accounts is utilized to create the probability model. It allows the evaluation of the loan activity from its origination period until the end of the contract period.

As these are future cash flows, these are discounted back to the time of default (i.e., is defined by the Parent Company as upon cancellation of CTS) using the appropriate effective interest rate, usually being the original EIR or an approximation thereof.

For all debt financial assets other than receivables, ECLs are recognized using the general approach wherein the Parent Company tracks changes in credit risk and recognizes a loss allowance based on either a 12-month or lifetime ECLs at each reporting date.

At each reporting date, the Parent Company assesses whether there has been an SICR for financial assets since initial recognition by comparing the risk of default occurring over the expected life between the reporting date and the date of initial recognition. The Parent Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort for this purpose. This includes quantitative and qualitative information and forward-looking analysis.

Exposures that have not deteriorated significantly since origination, or where the deterioration remains within the Parent Company's investment grade criteria are considered to have a low credit risk. The provision for credit losses for these financial assets is based on a 12-month ECL. The low credit risk exemption has been applied on debt investments that meet the investment grade criteria of the Parent Company from the time of origination.

The Parent Company considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Parent Company may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Parent Company is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Parent Company. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Financial liabilities

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at FVPL, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. Debt issue costs are deducted against long-term debt and are amortized over the terms of the related borrowings using the effective interest method.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial liabilities are classified in two categories:

- Financial liabilities at FVPL
- Financial liabilities at amortized cost

Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost. This is the category most relevant to the Parent Company. After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortized cost under the EIR method.

Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as interest in the parent company statements of comprehensive income.

The Parent Company's financial liabilities measured at amortized cost as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 includes the following (see Notes 13 and 16):

- Short-term debt
- Long-term debt
- Accounts and other payables (excluding statutory payables)

(iii) Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the parent company statements of comprehensive income.

Classification of Financial Instruments Between Liability and Equity

Financial instruments are classified as liabilities or equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement. Interest, dividends, gains and losses relating to a financial instrument or a component that is a financial liability, are reported as expense or income. Distributions to holders of financial instruments classified as equity are charged directly to equity, net of any related income tax benefits.

A financial instrument is classified as debt if it provides for a contractual obligation to:

- deliver cash or another financial asset to another entity; or,
- exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially unfavorable to the Company; or,
- satisfy the obligation other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of own equity shares.

If the Parent Company does not have an unconditional right to avoid delivering cash or another financial asset to settle its contractual obligation, the obligation meets the definition of a financial liability.

Offsetting Financial Instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the parent company statements of financial position if, and only if, there is a legally enforceable right to offset and intention to settle either on a net basis or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The Parent Company assesses that it has a currently enforceable right of offset if the right is not contingent on a future event, and is legally enforceable in the normal course of business, event of default, and event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Parent Company and all of the counterparties.

Real Estate Inventories

Real estate inventories consist of subdivision land and residential houses and lots for sale and development initially recorded at cost. Subsequent to initial recognition, these are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV). Cost includes the acquisition cost of the land plus all costs incurred directly attributable to the construction and development of the properties.

NRV is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, based on market prices at the reporting date, less estimated cost of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

The costs of inventory recognized in profit or loss on disposal is determined with reference to the specific costs incurred on the property sold and an allocation of any non-specific costs based on the relative size of the property sold.

Deposits for Purchased Land

This represents deposits made to landowners for the purchase of certain parcels of land which are intended to be held for sale or development in the future. These are recognized at cost. The deposits made are presented under other current and noncurrent assets in the statements of financial position as these are expected to be used for the Parent Company's real estate development projects and land banking, respectively.

Prepayments

Prepayments are initially recorded as assets and measured at the amount paid. Subsequently, these are charged to the parent company statements of comprehensive income as they are consumed in operations or expire with the passage of time.

Deposits for Future Stock Subscription

Deposits for future stock subscription pertain to amounts paid by the Parent Company to its subsidiaries for additional subscriptions in excess of the authorized share capital pending the investees' application or approval of the amendments to increase authorized share capital.

Investment in Associates

The Parent Company's investments in associates are accounted for using the cost method. An associate is an entity in which the Parent Company has significant influence, and which is neither a subsidiary nor a joint venture. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

Under the cost method, investments are carried in the parent company statements of financial position at cost less any impairment in value. The Parent Company recognizes income from these investments only to the extent that it receives (or becomes entitled to) distributions from accumulated profits of the investees arising from the date of acquisition. Distributions received in excess of such profits are regarded as recovery of investments and recognized as reduction in cost of investments.

Investments in Subsidiaries

The Parent Company's investments in subsidiaries are accounted for under the cost method. A subsidiary is an entity that is controlled by the Parent Company. Control is achieved when the Parent Company is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee.

Under the cost method, investment is recognized at cost less impairment losses, if any. Income from investment is recognized only to the extent that the Parent Company receives distributions from accumulated profits of the investees arising after the date of acquisition. Distributions received in excess of such profits are regarded as a recovery of investment and are recognized as a reduction of the cost of the investment.

Investment Properties

Investment property is property (land, land improvements, or a building or part of a building or both) held (by the owner or by the lessee under a finance lease) to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both.

Investment properties are initially recognized at cost plus directly attributable cost incurred. Subsequent to initial recognition, the building and improvements is carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization and any impairment in value while the land is carried at cost less any impairment in value.

The Parent Company depreciates and amortizes its building and land improvements using the straight-line method over the 10-30 years estimated useful lives.

Transfers are made to (or from) investment property only when there is a change in use. For a transfer from investment property to owner-occupied property, the deemed cost for subsequent accounting is the fair value at the date of change in use. If owner-occupied property becomes an investment property, the Parent Company accounts for such property in accordance with the policy stated under property and equipment up to the date of change in use.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment, except for land, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value. Land is stated at cost, less any impairment in value.

The initial cost of property and equipment comprises its purchase price including legal and brokerage fees, import duties, nonrefundable purchase taxes and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Expenditures incurred after the property and equipment have been put into operation, such as maintenance, repairs and costs of day-to-day servicing, are recognized in profit or loss in the period the costs are incurred.

In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditures have resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of an item of property and equipment beyond its originally assessed standard of performance, the expenditures are capitalized as additional cost of property and equipment.

The carrying values of property and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstance indicate that the carrying values may not be recoverable.

Depreciation of an item of property and equipment begins when it becomes available for use, i.e., when it is in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives, except for leasehold improvements, which are amortized over their estimated lives or term of the lease, whichever is shorter:

	Years
Building and improvements	10 - 30
Furniture and fixtures	3 - 5
Machineries and equipment	2 - 5
Transportation equipment	2 - 5
Tools and other machineries	2 - 5
Other equipment	2 - 10

If there is an indication that there has been a significant change since the last annual reporting date in the pattern by which the Parent Company expects to consume an asset's future economic benefits, the Parent Company shall review its present depreciation method and, if current expectations differ, change the depreciation method to reflect the new pattern. The Parent Company shall account for the change prospectively as a change in an accounting estimate.

Fully depreciated assets are retained in the accounts until these are no longer in use.

Impairment of Nonfinancial Assets

This accounting policy applies primarily to the Parent Company's other assets (excluding refundable deposits and deposits in escrow), investments in associates, investments in subsidiaries, deposits for future stock subscription, investment properties, and property and equipment (see Notes 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 15).

The Parent Company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired when events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying values may not be recoverable. If any such indication exists or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Parent Company makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's estimated recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs to sell and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or group of assets.

Where the carrying values exceed the estimated recoverable amount, the assets or CGUs are written down to their estimated recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

Impairment losses of continuing operations are directly charged or credited to operations in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

Equity

Capital stock and additional paid-in capital

Capital stock consists of common shares and preferred shares which are measured at par value for all common and preferred shares issued. When the shares are sold at a premium, the difference between the proceeds and the par value is credited to "Additional paid-in capital" account. Direct cost incurred related to the equity issuance, such as underwriting, accounting and legal fees, printing costs and taxes are charged to 'Additional paid-in capital' account.

Treasury shares

Own equity instruments which are reacquired (treasury shares) are recognized at cost and deducted from equity. No gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Parent Company's own equity instruments. Any difference between the carrying amount and the consideration, if reissued, is recognized in additional paid-in capital.

The retained earnings is restricted for declaration of dividends to the extent of the cost of treasury shares.

Retained earnings

Retained earnings include all current and prior period results of operations, net of dividends declared and the effects of retrospective application of changes in accounting policies or restatements, if any. Dividends on common stock are recognized as a liability and deducted from equity when declared and approved by the BOD or shareholders of the Parent Company. Dividends for the year that are declared and approved after the reporting date, if any, are dealt with as an event after the reporting date and disclosed accordingly.

Revenue and Cost Recognition

Revenue from Contracts with Customers

The Parent Company is primarily engaged in real estate development and water services. Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized when control of the goods and services is transferred to the customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Parent Company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The Parent Company considers whether there are other promises in the contract that are separate performance obligations to which a portion of the transaction price needs to be allocated. The Parent Company has generally concluded that it is the principal in its revenue arrangements since it is the primary obligor in these revenue arrangements.

The disclosures of significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions relating to revenue from contracts with customers are provided in Note 3.

Real estate sales. The Parent Company derives its real estate revenue from sale of lots and developed residential house and lots. Revenue from the sale of these real estate projects under pre-completion stage are recognized over time during the construction period (or percentage of completion) since based on the terms and conditions of its contract with the buyers, the Parent Company's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use and the Parent Company has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Starting January 1, 2024, in determining the transaction price, the Company considers whether the selling price of the real estate property includes significant financing component.

In measuring the progress of its performance obligation over time, the Parent Company uses the output method. The Parent Company recognizes revenue on the basis of direct measurements of the value to customers of the goods or services transferred to date, relative to the remaining goods or services promised under the contract. Progress is measured using physical proportion of work done. This is based on the bi-monthly project accomplishment report prepared by the project engineers which integrates the surveys of performance to date of the construction activities for both sub-contracted and those that are fulfilled by the developer itself.

Buyer's equity represents the POC over the total selling price that the buyer has paid the Parent Company and it is at this collection level that the Parent Company assesses that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Parent Company because of certainty of collection of the remaining balance of the selling price. This gives the buyer, a stake in the property, the level of which is sufficient enough to mitigate the risks of loss through default which would motivate the buyer to honor its obligations to the Parent Company. Management regularly evaluates the historical cancellations and back-outs if it would still support its current collection threshold before commencing revenue recognition.

Any excess of progress of work over the right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional, is recognized under 'Contract assets' in the assets section of the parent company statements of financial position.

Any excess of collections over the total of recognized ICR and contract assets are recognized under 'Contract liabilities' account in the liabilities section of the parent company statements of financial position.

Sales cancellation is accounted for as a modification of the contract (i.e.; from non-cancelable to being cancelable) resulting to the reversal of the previously recognized real estate sales and cost of real estate sales and reinstating the real estate inventories at cost.

Cost of real estate sales. The Parent Company recognizes costs relating to satisfied performance obligations as these are incurred which include costs of land, land development costs, building costs, professional fees, depreciation, permits and licenses and capitalized borrowing costs. These costs are allocated to the saleable area, with the portion allocable to the sold area being recognized as costs of sales while the portion allocable to the unsold area being recognized as part of real estate inventories.

Contract costs include all direct materials and labor costs and those indirect costs related to contract performance. Expected losses on contracts are recognized immediately when it is probable that the total contract costs will exceed total contract revenue. Changes in contract performance, contract conditions and estimated profitability, including those arising from contract penalty provisions, and final contract settlements which may result in revisions to estimated costs and gross margins are recognized in the year in which the changes are determined.

In addition, the Parent Company recognizes cost as an asset that gives rise to resources that will be used in satisfying performance obligations in the future and that are expected to be recovered.

Water service, tapping fees, transfer fees and other water charges. Revenue is recognized over time as the customer receives and consumes the benefit from the performance of the related water services. Water services are billed every month. The Parent Company recognizes revenue in the amount to which the Company has a right to invoice since the Parent Company bills a fixed amount for every cubic meter of water delivered.

Income from forfeited deposits. Income from forfeited collections recorded under 'Other income' in the parent company statements of comprehensive income is recognized when the deposits from potential buyers are deemed nonrefundable due to prescription of the period for entering into a contracted sale. Such income is also recognized, subject to the provisions of Republic Act 6552, Realty Installment Buyer Act, upon prescription of the period for the payment of required amortizations from defaulting buyers.

Dividend income. Dividend income is recognized when the Parent Company's right to receive payment is established which is generally when shareholders approve the dividend.

Rental income. Rental income arising from operating leases on investment properties is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the respective lease terms.

Contract Balances

Installment contracts receivable. An ICR represents the Parent Company's right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due).

Contract assets. A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Parent Company performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract assets is recognized for the earned consideration that is conditional.

For the Parent Company's real estate sales, contract assets are initially recognized for revenue earned from development of real estate projects as receipt of consideration is conditional on successful completion of development. Upon completion of development and acceptance by the customer, the amounts recognized as contract assets are reclassified to ICR. It is recognized under 'Receivables' in the parent company statements of financial position.

Costs to obtain contract. The incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer are recognized under 'Other current assets' in the parent company statements of financial position if the Parent Company expects to recover them. The Parent Company has determined that commissions paid to brokers and marketing agents on the sale of pre-completed real estate units are deferred when recovery is reasonably expected and are charged to expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognized over time using the POC method. Commission expense is included in the 'General, administrative and selling expenses' account in the parent company statements of comprehensive income.

Costs incurred prior to obtaining a contract with customer are not capitalized but are expensed as incurred.

Contract liabilities. A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Parent Company has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. If a customer pays consideration before the Parent Company transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognized when the payment is made or due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue when the Parent Company performs under the contract.

The contract liabilities also include payments received by the Parent Company from the customers for which revenue recognition has not yet commenced.

Costs and Expenses

Costs and expenses are decreases in economic benefits during the accounting period in the form of outflows or decrease of assets or incurrence of liabilities that result in decreases in equity, other than those relating to distributions to equity participants. Costs and expenses are generally recognized when the services are used or the expense arises while interest expenses are accrued in the appropriate period.

This consist of general administrative expenses which constitute costs of administering the business and selling expenses which constitute commission on real estate sales and advertising expenses. General administrative and selling expenses (excluding amortization of capitalized costs to obtain contracts) are recognized as incurred.

Post-employment Benefits

Pension benefits are provided to employees through a defined benefit plan. The net defined benefit liability or asset is the aggregate of the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period reduced by the fair value of plan assets, adjusted for any effect of limiting a net defined benefit asset to the asset ceiling. The asset ceiling is the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plans is actuarially determined using the projected unit credit method.

The following comprise the defined benefit costs:

- Service cost
- Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset
- Remeasurements of net defined benefit liability or asset

Service costs, which include current service costs, past service costs, and gains or losses on non-routine settlements are recognized as expense in parent company statements of comprehensive income. Past service costs are recognized when plan amendment or curtailment occurs. These amounts are calculated periodically by independent qualified actuaries.

Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset is the change during the period in the net defined benefit liability or asset that arises from the passage of time which is determined by applying the discount rate based on government bonds to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset is recognized as expense or income in the parent company statements of comprehensive income.

Remeasurements comprising actuarial gains and losses, return on plan assets, and any change in the effect of the asset ceiling (excluding net interest on defined benefit liability) are recognized immediately in OCI in the period in which they arise. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Plan assets are assets that are held in trust and managed by a trustee bank. Plan assets are not available to the creditors of the Parent Company, nor can they be paid directly to the Parent Company. The fair value of plan assets is based on market price information. When no market price is available, the fair value of plan assets is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows using a discount rate that reflects both the risk associated with the plan assets and the maturity or expected disposal date of those assets (or, if they have no maturity, the expected period until the settlement of the related obligations).

Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale while the asset, which includes real estate inventories, is being constructed are capitalized as part of the cost of that asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur.

The interest capitalized is calculated using the Company's weighted average cost of borrowings after adjusting for borrowings associated with specific developments. Where borrowings are associated with specific developments, the amounts capitalized is the gross interest incurred on those borrowings less any investment income arising on their temporary investment of those borrowings.

For investment properties, interest is capitalized from the commencement of the development work until the date of practical completion. The capitalization of borrowing costs is suspended if there are prolonged periods when development activity is interrupted. Interest is also capitalized on the purchase cost of a site of property acquired specifically for redevelopment but only where activities necessary to prepare the asset for redevelopment are in progress.

Interest is capitalized if the properties are currently undertaking activities necessary to prepare the assets for its intended sales, including but not limited to pre-construction such as permitting, design, planning and actual land development activities and are not ready to be sold in its current condition.

Borrowings originally made to develop a specific qualifying asset are transferred to general borrowings (a) when substantially all of the activities necessary to prepare that asset for its intended use or sale are complete, and (b) the entity chooses to use its funds on constructing other qualifying assets rather than repaying the loan.

Capitalization of borrowing costs commences when the activities to prepare the asset are in progress and expenditures and borrowing costs are being incurred. Capitalization of borrowing costs ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the asset for its intended sale are completed. If the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recorded.

All other borrowing costs are expensed as incurred.

Leases

The Parent Company assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

As Lessor. Leases where the Parent Company retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognized over the lease term on the same bases as rental income. Contingent rents are recognized as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

As Lessee. The Parent Company applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets.

Short-term leases. The Parent Company applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of office spaces and transportation equipment that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. Lease payments on short-term leases are recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Taxes

Current income tax. Current income tax liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the tax authority. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that have been enacted or substantively enacted as of reporting date.

Current income tax relating to items recognized directly in equity is recognized in equity and not in the parent company statements of comprehensive income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

Deferred tax. Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; or,
- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized, except:

When the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; or,

In respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable income will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilized. Unrecognized deferred tax assets are reassessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognized outside profit or loss is recognized outside profit or loss. Deferred tax items are recognized in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

The Parent Company offsets deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities if and only if it has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Creditable withholding taxes (CWT). CWT pertains to taxes withheld on income payments and may be applied against income tax due. The balance of taxes withheld is recovered in future period. The balance as of end of each reporting period represents the unutilized amount after deducting any income tax payable. Creditable withholding tax is stated at its realizable value.

VAT. Revenues, expenses and assets are recognized net of amount of VAT, if applicable.

When VAT from provision of services (output VAT) exceeds VAT passed on from purchases of goods or services (input VAT), the excess is recognized as output VAT under 'Accounts and other payables' in the parent company statements of financial position. When VAT passed on from purchases of goods or services (input VAT) exceeds VAT from provision of services (output VAT), the excess is recognized as input taxes under 'Other current assets' in the parent company statements of financial position up to the extent of the recoverable amount.

The net amount of sales tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the parent company statements of financial position.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Parent Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. When the Parent Company expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed, for example, the reimbursement is recognized as a separate asset, but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the parent company statements of comprehensive income net of any reimbursement.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the parent company financial statements. These are disclosed unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote. A contingent asset is not recognized in the parent company financial statements but disclosed when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Events After the Reporting Date

Events after the reporting period are those events, favorable and unfavorable, that occur between the end of the reporting period and the date when the parent company financial statements are authorized for issue. Post year-end events that provide additional information about the Parent Company's financial position at the reporting date (adjusting events) are reflected in the parent company financial statements. Post year-end events that are not adjusting events are disclosed in the notes to parent company financial statements when material.

3. Significant Accounting Judgments and Estimates

The preparation of the parent company financial statements in compliance with PFRS Accounting Standards requires the Parent Company to make judgments and estimates that affect the amounts reported in the parent company financial statements and accompanying notes. The judgments, estimates and assumptions used in the accompanying parent company financial statements are based upon management's evaluation of relevant facts and circumstances as of the date of the parent company financial statements. The effects of any change in judgments and estimates are reflected in the parent company financial statements as they become reasonably determinable.

Judgments and estimates are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ for such estimates.

Judgments

In the process of applying the Parent Company's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the parent company financial statements.

Revenue from contracts with customers. The Parent Company is primarily engaged in real estate sales and development and water services. The Parent Company accounts for all of the goods and services in each contract with customer as a single performance obligation capable of being distinct.

The Parent Company applied the following judgments that significantly affect the determination of the amount and timing of revenue from contracts with customers:

Real estate revenue recognition. Revenue recognition under PFRS 15 involves the application of significant judgment and estimation in the: (a) identification of the contract for sale of real estate property that would meet the requirements of PFRS 15; (b) assessment of the probability that the entity will collect the consideration from the buyer; (c) determination of the transaction price; and (d) application of the output method as the measure of progress in determining real estate revenue.

- Identifying performance obligations. The Parent Company has various contract to sell (CTS) covering subdivision land and residential houses and lots. The Parent Company concluded that the goods and services transferred in each contract constitute a single performance obligation. In particular, the promised goods and services in contracts for the sale of property under development mainly include design work, procurement of materials and development of the property. Generally, the Parent Company is responsible for all of these goods and services and the overall management of the project. Although these goods and services are capable of being distinct, Parent Company accounts for them as a single performance obligation because they are not distinct in the context contract. The Parent Company uses those goods and services as inputs and provides a significant service of integrating them into a combined output. Included also in this performance obligation is the Parent Company's service to transfer the title of the real estate unit to the buyer.
- Existence of a contract. The Parent Company's primary document for a contract with a customer for real estate sales is a signed CTS supported by other signed documentations such as reservation agreement, official receipts, buyers' amortization schedule and invoices and it met all the criteria to qualify as contract with a customer under PFRS 15.

In addition, part of the assessment process of the Parent Company before revenue recognition is to assess the probability that the Parent Company will collect the consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the real estate property that will be transferred to the customer. In evaluating whether collectability of an amount of consideration is probable, an entity considers the significance of the customer's initial payments in relation to the total contract price. Collectability is also assessed by considering factors such as past history with the customer, age of receivables and pricing of the property. Management regularly evaluates the historical sales cancellations and back-outs if it would still support its current threshold of buyers' equity before commencing revenue recognition.

- Determining transaction price. The mismatch between the POC of the real estate projects and right to an amount of consideration based on the schedule of payments provided for in the contract to sell (CTS) constitute a significant financing component. The Parent Company adjusts the promised amount of consideration for the effects of a significant financing component if it expects, at contract inception, that the period between the transfer of the promised good or service to the customer and when the customer pays for that good or service will be more than one year.

- Revenue recognition method and measure of progress. The Parent Company concluded that revenue for real estate sales is to be recognized over time because: (a) the Parent Company's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use and; (b) the Parent Company has an enforceable right for performance completed to date. The promised property is specifically identified in the contract and the contractual restriction on the Parent Company's ability to direct the promised property for another use is substantive. This is because the property promised to the customer is not interchangeable with other properties without breaching the contract and without incurring significant costs that otherwise would not have been incurred in relation to that contract. In addition, under the current legal framework, the customer is contractually obliged to make payments to the developer up to the performance completed to date.
- The Parent Company has determined that output method used in measuring the progress of the performance obligation faithfully depicts the Parent Company's performance in transferring control of real estate development to the customers. This method measures progress based on physical proportion of work done on the real estate project which requires technical determination by the Parent Company's specialists (project engineers).

In addition, the Parent Company requires a collection threshold of 10% of buyer's payments of total selling price (buyer's equity), to be collected as one of the criteria in order to initiate revenue recognition. Reaching this level of collection is an indication of buyer's continuing commitment and the probability that economic benefits will flow to the Parent Company.

Determining taxable profit, tax bases and tax rates. Upon adoption of the Philippine Interpretation IFRIC 23, the Parent Company has assessed whether it has any uncertain tax position. The Parent Company applies significant judgement in identifying uncertainties over its income tax treatments. The Parent Company determined, based on its tax compliance assessment, in consultation with its tax counsel, that it is probable that its income tax treatments will be accepted by the taxation authorities. Accordingly, the interpretation did not have a significant impact on the parent company financial statements.

Distinction between real estate inventories, investment properties and owner-occupied properties. The Parent Company determines whether a property will be classified as real estate inventories, investment properties or owner-occupied properties. In making this judgment, the Parent Company considers whether the property will be sold in the normal operating cycle (real estate inventories) and whether the property generates cash flow largely independent of the other assets held by an entity.

Real estate inventories comprise of property that is held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

Principally, this is residential property that the Parent Company develops and intends to sell before or on completion of construction. Investment property comprises land and buildings which are not occupied substantially for use by, or in the operations of the Parent Company, nor for sale in the ordinary course of business, but are held primarily to earn rental income and for capital appreciation. Owner-occupied properties classified and presented as property and equipment, generate cash flows that are attributable not only to property but also to the other assets used in the production or supply process.

Impairment of nonfinancial assets. The Parent Company assesses impairment on its nonfinancial assets (e.g. investment in associate, investments in subsidiaries, deposit for future stock subscription, investment properties, property and equipment and other assets excluding deposits in escrow and refundable deposits) and considers the following important indicators:

- Significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the asset;
- Increase in market interest rates or other market rates of return on investments have increased during the period, and those increases are likely to affect the discount rate used in calculating the asset's value-in-use and decrease the asset's recoverable amount materially;
- Significant underperformance relative to expected historical or projected future operating results;
- Significant changes in the manner of use of the acquired assets or the strategy for overall business;
- Significant negative industry or economic trends; or,
- Significant changes with an adverse effect that have taken place in the technological, market, economic or legal environment where the Parent Company operates.

If such indications are present and where the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the asset's fair value less cost to sell or value in use whichever is higher. The fair value less cost to sell is the amount obtainable from the sale of an asset in an arm's length transaction while value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to be generated from the continued use of the asset. The Parent Company is required to make estimates and assumptions that can materially affect the carrying amount of the asset being assessed.

Impairment loss recognized in statements in comprehensive income for the Parent Company's nonfinancial assets amounted to ₱1,737.7 million and nil for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Total allowance for impairment loss amounted to ₱1,742.6 million and ₱4.9 million in 2025 and 2024, respectively (Note 9).

Management's Use of Estimates and Assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Revenue and cost recognition on real estate projects. The Parent Company's revenue recognition policy require management to make use of estimates and assumptions that may affect the reported amounts of revenues. The Parent Company's revenue and cost of real estate sales are recognized based on the POC which is measured principally on the basis of the estimated completion of a physical proportion of the contract work which requires technical determination by management's specialists (project engineers) an involves significant management.

For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the real estate sales recognized over time amounted to ₱1,601.0 million and ₱1,528.0 million, respectively (see Note 23), while the related cost of real estate sales amounted to ₱709.3 million and ₱681.5 million, respectively (see Note 6).

Collectability of the sales price. In determining whether the sales price is collectible, the Parent Company considers that the initial and continuing investments by the buyer of 10% in 2025 and 2024 would demonstrate the buyer's commitment to pay.

The gross amount of ICR and contract assets arising from these sales contracts amounted to ₱2,858.1 million and ₱2,530.8 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively (see Notes 5 and 14).

Provision for expected credit losses of receivables and contract assets. The Parent Company uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade receivables other than ICRs. The provision rates are based on days past due for groupings of various customer segments that have similar loss patterns.

The provision matrix is initially based on the Parent Company's historical observed default rates. The Parent Company will calibrate the matrix to adjust the historical credit loss experience with forward-looking information such as inflation rates. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analyzed.

The Parent Company considers an ICR and contract asset in default when the Parent Company forfeits and repossesses the property from the customer through cancellation. However, in certain cases, the Parent Company may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Parent Company is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Parent Company.

The Parent Company uses vintage analysis to calculate ECLs for contract assets

The PD rates using vintage analysis are based on default counts of contract issuances in a given period for groupings of various customer segments that have similar loss patterns

The PD is applied to the estimate of the loss arising on default which is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Parent Company would expect to receive, including from the repossession of the subject real estate property, net of cash outflows. For purposes of calculating LGD, accounts are segmented based on facility/collateral type and completion. In calculating the recovery rates, the Parent Company considered collections of cash and/or cash from resale of real estate properties after foreclosure, net of direct costs of obtaining and selling the real estate properties after the default event such as commission, association dues, refurbishment, payment required under Republic Act 6552, Realty Installment Buyer Act, and cost to complete (for incomplete units). As these are future cash flows, these are discounted back to the reporting date using the appropriate effective interest rate, usually being the original EIR or an approximation thereof.

As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, the allowance for ECL for other receivables recognized in the parent company statements of financial position amounted to ₱5.8 million and ₱2.8 million respectively (see Note 5).

Estimating NRV of real estate inventories. The Parent Company reviews the NRV of real estate inventories and compares it with the cost. Real estate inventories are written down below cost when the estimated NRV is found to be lower than the cost.

NRV for completed real estate inventories is assessed with reference to market conditions and prices existing at the reporting date and is determined by the Parent Company having taken suitable external advice and in light of recent market transactions. NRV in respect of inventory under construction is assessed with reference to market prices at the reporting date for similar completed property, less estimated costs to complete construction less an estimate of the time value of money to the date of completion. The estimates used took into consideration fluctuations of price or cost directly relating to events occurring after the end of the period to the extent that such events confirm conditions existing at the end of the period.

The carrying values of real estate inventories amounted to ₱5,204.7 million and ₱4,058.0 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively (see Note 6).

Estimating useful lives of depreciable property and equipment and investment properties. The Parent Company estimates the useful lives of property and equipment and investment properties, except land, based on the period over which the assets are expected to be available for use. The estimated useful lives of property and equipment are reviewed periodically and are updated if expectations differ from previous estimates due to physical wear and tear, technical or commercial obsolescence, and legal or other limits on the use of the assets. In addition, the estimation of the useful lives of property and equipment is based on collective assessment of internal technical evaluation and experience with similar assets. It is possible, however, that future results of operations could be materially affected by changes in estimates brought about by changes in factors mentioned above. The amounts and timing of recorded expenses for any period would be affected by changes in these factors and circumstances.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the aggregate carrying value of depreciable property and equipment and investment properties are disclosed under Notes 11 and 12.

Estimating fair values of financial assets and liabilities. When the fair values of financial assets and liabilities recorded in the parent company statements of financial position cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is determined using average selling price of price per share of similar or identical assets traded in an active market.

As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, the aggregate fair values of the financial assets and financial liabilities are disclosed under Note 22.

Estimating realizability of deferred tax assets. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax assets to be utilized. The Parent Company's assessment on the recognition of deferred tax assets on deductible temporary differences is based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits determined from the tax planning strategies of the Parent Company. This forecast is based on the Parent Company's past results and future expectations on revenue and expenses.

The Parent Company assessed its projected performance in determining the sufficiency of the future taxable income. As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, the carrying values of these deferred tax assets are disclosed in Note 20.

Post-employment defined benefit plan. The cost of defined benefit pension plan and the present value of the pension obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. The actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions. These include the determination of the discount rates, future salary increases, mortality rates and future pension increases. Due to the complexity of the valuation, the underlying assumptions and its long-term nature, defined benefit obligations are highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Parent Company's retirement benefit obligation is disclosed in Note 19.

The aggregate fair values of investment properties as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 amounted to ₱830.2 million and ₱805.2 million, respectively.

The value of the land was arrived at using the Market Data Approach. In this approach, the value of the land is based on sales and listings of comparable property registered in the vicinity. The technique of this approach requires the establishment of comparable property by reducing reasonable comparative sales and listings to a common denominator. This is done by adjusting the differences between the subject property and those actual sales and listings regarded as comparable. The properties used as basis of comparison are situated within the immediate vicinity of the subject property. This valuation approach is categorized as Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy as at December 31, 2025 and 2024. The significant unobservable input to the valuation is the price per square meter.

For land, significant increases or decreases in estimated price per square meter in isolation would result in a significantly higher or lower fair value on a linear basis.

Accrued expenses pertain to accrued contractual services, professional fees, rent expenses and taxes and licenses incurred by the Parent Company.

14. Contract Assets and Liabilities

Contract assets represent the right to consideration that was already delivered by the Parent Company in excess of the amount recognized as ICR. This is reclassified as ICR when the monthly amortization of the customer is already due for collection. The movement in contract asset is mainly due to new real estate sales contract recognized during the period and increase in POC, less reclassification to ICR.

The Parent Company requires buyers of real estate units to pay a minimum percentage of the total contract price as reservation fee before the parties enter into a sale transaction. Payments from buyers which have not yet reached the buyer's equity to qualify for revenue recognition and excess of collections over the recognized receivables and contract assets based on POC are presented as "Contract liabilities" in the parent company statements of financial position.

When the Parent Company's current collection threshold is reached by the buyer, revenue is recognized, and these deposits and down payments are applied against the related ICR. The excess of collections over the recognized revenue is applied against the receivables in the succeeding years. The movement in contract liabilities is mainly due to the reservation sales and advance payments of buyers less real estate sales recognized upon reaching the collection threshold and from increase in POC.

The Parent Company's contract assets and contract liabilities as at December 31, 2025 and 2024 are as follows:

	2025	2024
Contract assets
Current portion of contract assets	₱423,316,466	₱131,239,842

19. Retirement Benefit Obligation

The Parent Company has a funded non-contributory retirement plan covering all regular and full-time employees. Benefits are dependent on the years of service and the respective employee's compensation.

The Parent Company's plan assets are maintained by a trustee bank. The Retirement Plan Trustee, as appointed by the Parent Company in the Trust Agreement executed between the Parent Company and the duly appointed Retirement Plan Trustee, is responsible for the general administration of the Retirement Plan and the management of the Retirement Fund. The Retirement Plan Trustee may seek the advice of counsel and appoint an investment manager or managers to manage the Retirement Fund, an independent accountant to audit the Fund, and an actuary to value the Retirement Fund.

21. Lease Agreements

Parent Company as a Lessor

The Parent Company leased its various properties under operating leases. The term of the lease agreement is for one year and is renewable upon mutual agreement of both parties. The agreements provide that the lessees shall pay for all major and minor repairs, business taxes, and charges for water, light, telephone and other utilities expense. There is no escalation clause and the leases are classified as operating leases.

Rental income from third parties under these operating leases amounted to ₱4.1 million and ₱3.0 million in 2025 and 2024, respectively (see Note 11).

Parent Company as a Lessee

The Parent Company has lease agreements for its office spaces in Cagayan de Oro City and Metro Manila and on certain transportation equipment which have lease terms of 12 months or less and are renewable upon the agreement of both parties. The Parent Company applies the ‘short-term lease’ recognition exemption for these leases.

In 2025 and 2024, rent expense amounted to ₱13.6 million and ₱10.6 million, respectively (see Note 18).

22. Financial Risk Management Objectives and Policies

The Parent Company is exposed to a variety of financial risks, which resulted from its operating, investing and financing activities in relation to its financial instruments which include financial assets comprising cash, receivables (excluding advances to officers and employees), receivables from related parties, EIFVOCI, and refundable deposits and deposits in escrow included under “Other assets”. This also includes financial liabilities comprising accounts and other payables (excluding statutory payables) and short and long-term debt. The main types of risks are market risk (mainly interest rate and equity price risks), credit risk and liquidity risk which arise in the normal course of the Parent Company’s business activities.

The objective of financial risk management is to contain, where appropriate, exposures in these financial risks to limit any negative impact on the Parent Company's results and financial position. The Parent Company actively measures, monitors and manages its financial risk exposures by various functions pursuant to the segregation of duties principle. The management takes charge of the Parent Company's overall risk management strategies and for approval of risk strategies and policies under the direction of the Parent Company's BOD.

The Parent Company's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the Parent Company's financial performance.

There were no changes in the Parent Company's financial risk management objectives and policies in 2025 and 2024.

The main risks arising from the use of financial instruments are credit risk, liquidity risk and interest rate risk. The Parent Company's BOD reviews and agrees with policies for managing each of these risks. These are summarized below:

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss.

The Parent Company trades only with recognized, creditworthy third parties. The Parent Company's receivables are monitored on an ongoing basis to manage exposure to bad debts and to ensure timely execution of necessary intervention efforts. The Parent Company's debt financial assets are not subject to collateral and other credit enhancement except for ICR. Real estate buyers are subject to standard credit check procedures, which are calibrated based on payment scheme offered. The Parent Company's respective credit management units conduct a comprehensive credit investigation and evaluation of each buyer to establish creditworthiness.

In addition, the credit risk for ICRs is mitigated as the Parent Company has the right to cancel the sales contract without need for any court action and take possession of the subject real estate property in case of refusal by the buyer to pay on time the due ICR. This risk is further mitigated because the corresponding title to the real estate units sold under this arrangement is transferred to the buyers only upon full payment of the contract price. In case of default, after enforcement activities, the Parent Company has the right to cancel the sale and enter into another CTS to another customer after certain proceedings (e.g. grace period, referral to legal, cancellation process, reimbursement of previous payments) had been completed. Given this, based on the experience of the Parent Company, the maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is nil considering that fair value less cost to repossess of the real estate projects is higher than the exposure at default (i.e., recovery rate is more than 100%).

With respect to credit risk arising from the other debt financial assets of the Parent Company, which comprise cash, receivables from related parties and refundable deposits, the Parent Company's exposure to credit risk arises from default of the counterparty, with a maximum exposure equal to the carrying amount of these instruments. The Parent Company transacts only with institutions or banks which have demonstrated financial soundness for the past 5 years.

For financial assets recognized on the parent company statements of financial position, the gross exposure to credit risk equals their carrying amount except for ICR and contract assets where exposure to credit risk is not significant given that title of the real estate property is only transferred to the customer if the consideration had been fully paid.

The Parent Company's maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the carrying values of its debt financial assets and contract assets except for ICRs as discussed above. The table below shows aging analysis of the Parent Company's financial assets:

The following are the details of the Parent Company's assessment of credit quality and the related ECLs as at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Low credit risk simplification approach

- Cash and Deposits in Escrow - These are of high quality as the amounts are deposited in reputable banks which have good bank standing and is considered to have low credit risk. Accordingly, management assessed that no ECL relating to the cash of the Parent Company is recognized.

General approach

- Receivables (except ICR and trade receivables), receivables from related parties, refundable deposits and advances to officers and employees - These are high grade since these pertain to counterparties who have a very remote likelihood of default and have consistently exhibited good paying habits. Accordingly, management assessed that no ECL relating to these receivables and deposits of the Parent Company is recognized. This assessment is undertaken each financial year through examining the financial position of the counterparties and the markets in which they operate.

Simplified approach

- ICR and contract assets - These are high grade since these pertain to counterparties who have a very remote likelihood of default and have consistently exhibited good paying habits. Accordingly, management assessed that no ECL relating to these receivables of the Parent Company is recognized. Exposure to bad debts is not significant as title to real estate properties are not transferred to the buyers until full payment has been made and the requirement for remedial procedures is minimal given the profile of buyers. This assessment is undertaken each financial year through examining the financial position of the counterparties and the markets in which they operate.
- Trade receivables - These are high grade since these pertain to receivables from customers who have established good credit standing with the Company. The Parent Company applied the simplified approach under PFRS 9, using a 'provision matrix'. Trade receivables are regarded as short-term and while there are certain accounts that are past-due, the Parent Company evaluates the credit risk with respect to trade receivables as low as there were no history of default payments.

For financial assets recognized on the statements of financial position, the gross exposure to credit risk equals their carrying amount except for ICR and contract assets where exposure to credit risk is not significant given that title of the real estate property is only transferred to the customer if the consideration has been fully paid.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. Liquidity risk may result from either the inability to sell financial assets quickly at their fair values; or the counterparty failing on repayment of a contractual obligation; or inability to generate cash inflows as anticipated.

The Parent Company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of bank loans and advances from related parties. The Parent Company monitors its cash flow position and overall liquidity position in assessing its exposure to liquidity risk. The Parent Company maintains a level of cash deemed adequate by management to finance its operations and capital requirements and to mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows. The Parent Company considers its available funds and its liquidity in managing its long-term financial requirements. It matches its projected cash flows to the projected amortization of long-term borrowings. For its short-term funding, the Parent Company's policy is to ensure that there are sufficient operating inflows to match repayments of short-term debt. As part of its liquidity risk management, it regularly evaluates its projected and actual cash flows.

The tables below summarize the Parent Company's financial assets that can be used to manage its liquidity risk and the maturity profile of its financial liabilities as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 based on contractual undiscounted payments:

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in interest rates, foreign currency exchanges rates, commodity prices, equity prices and other market changes.

Interest Rate Risk. Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of the Parent Company's financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Parent Company's interest rate risk management policy centers on reducing the overall interest expense and exposure to changes in interest rates. Changes in market interest rates relate primarily to the Parent Company's interest-bearing debt obligations with floating interest rates or rates subject to repricing as it can cause a change in the amount of interest payments.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates, with all variables held constant, of the Parent Company's income before tax and equity, through the impact on floating rate borrowings:

2025		2024
Increase (decrease) in basis points	Effect on profit before tax	Increase (decrease) in basis points	Effect on profit before tax
300	(₱6,409,708)	300	(₱5,076,462)
200	(4,273,139)	200	(3,384,308)
100	(2,136,569)	100	(1,692,154)
(100)	2,136,569	(100)	1,692,154
(200)	4,273,139	(200)	3,384,308
(300)	6,409,708	(300)	5,076,462

The sensitivity analyses shown above are based on the assumption that the interest movements will be more likely be limited to 100 to 300 basis points upward or downward fluctuation in both 2025 and 2024. There is no other impact on the Parent Company's total comprehensive income other than those already affecting the net income.

Equity Price Risk. The Parent Company's equity investments on golf club shares, classified as FVOCI are susceptible to market price risk arising from uncertainties about future values of the investment securities.

In 2025 and 2024, changes in fair value of equity instruments held as financial assets at FVOCI due to a reasonably possible change in equity indices, with all other variables held constant, will increase equity by ₱2.27 million and ₱1.0 million if equity prices will increase by 1.5%.

Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instrument for which it is practicable to estimate such value:

- Cash, receivables (except ICR), deposits in escrow, advances to officers and employees, accounts and other payables and short term-debt. The fair values approximate their carrying amounts as of reporting dates due to the short-term maturity of these financial instruments.
- ICR. The fair value of ICR due within one year approximates its carrying amount.
- Receivables from related parties. Carrying amounts of receivables from related parties which are collectible on demand approximate their fair values. Receivables from related parties are unsecured and have no foreseeable terms of repayments.

EIFVOCI. For unquoted equity securities, the fair value is determined using valuation techniques with inputs and assumptions that are based on market observable data and conditions and reflect appropriate risk adjustments that market participants would make for credit and liquidity risks existing at the end each of reporting period. The fair values are determined based on average selling price of price per share of similar or identical assets traded in an active market (Level 2 input).

- Refundable deposits. The fair values of refundable deposits are not determinable since the timing of each refund is not reasonably predictable, hence presented at cost.
- Long-term debt. The fair value of borrowings with fixed interest rate is based on the discounted net present value of cash flows using the PH BVAL. Discount rates used range from 7.7% to 8.2% and 7.7% to 8.2% in 2025 and 2024. The Parent Company classifies the fair value of its long-term debt under Level 3.

Fair Value Hierarchy

The Parent Company uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair value of financial instruments by valuation technique:

- Level 1: quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: other techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value, are observable, either directly or indirectly; and,
- Level 3: techniques which use inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value that are not based on observable market data.

As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, there were no transfers from Level 1 and Level 2 fair value measurements, and no transfers into and out of Level 3 fair value measurements.

23. Revenue from Contracts with Customers

Performance Obligation

Information about the Parent Company’s significant performance obligation is summarized below:

Real estate sales

The Parent Company entered into contracts to sell with one identified performance obligation, which is the sale of the real estate unit together with the services to transfer the title to the buyer upon full payment of contract price. The amount of consideration indicated in the contract to sell is fixed and has no variable consideration. The sale of real estate unit may cover the contract for either the (i) serviced lot; (ii), and service lot and house and the Parent Company concluded that there is one performance obligation in each of these contracts. The Parent Company recognizes revenue from the sale of these real estate projects under pre-completed contract over time during the course of the construction.

Payment commences upon signing of the contract to sell and the consideration is payable in cash or under various financing schemes entered with the customer. The financing scheme would include payment of 10% to 25% of the contract price spread over a certain period (e.g., three months to four years) at a fixed monthly payment with the remaining balance payable (a) in full at the end of the period either through cash or external financing; or (b) through in-house financing which ranges from two (2) to ten (10) years with fixed monthly payment. The amount due for collection under the amortization schedule for each of the customer does not necessarily coincide with the progress of construction, which results to either a contract asset or liability.

The remaining performance obligation is expected to be recognized within one year which relate to the continuous development of the Parent Company’s real estate projects. The Parent Company’s real estate projects are completed within 6 months to 12 months, from start of construction.

Income from forfeited deposits

Income from forfeited deposits amounting to ₱18.5 million and ₱23.8 million in 2025 and 2024, respectively pertains to collections from potential buyers deemed nonrefundable due to prescription of the period for entering into a contracted sale and/or payment from defaulting buyers upon prescription of the period for payment of the required amortizations subject to the provisions of Republic Act 6552, Realty Installment Buyer Act.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
A Brown Company, Inc. and Subsidiaries
Xavier Estates, Masterson Avenue
Upper Balulang, Cagayan de Oro City

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of A Brown Company, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Group), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, consolidated statements of changes in equity and consolidated statements of cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Group as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and its financial performance and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025 in accordance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRS) Accounting Standards.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with Philippine Standards on Auditing (PSAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants in the Philippines (Code of Ethics), as applicable to the audits of financial statements of public interest entities, together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements of public interest entities in the Philippines. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Real Estate Revenue Recognition

The Group's revenue recognition process, policies and procedures are significant to our audit because these involve application of significant judgment and estimation in the following areas: (1) assessment of the probability that the entity will collect the consideration from the buyer; (2) determination of the transaction price; and (3) application of the output method as the measure of progress in determining real estate revenue.

In evaluating whether collectability of the amount of consideration is probable, the Group considers the significance of the buyer's initial payments in relation to the total contract price (or buyer's equity). Collectability is also assessed by considering factors such as past history with the buyer, age and pricing of the property. Management regularly evaluates the historical sales cancellations and back-outs, if it would still support its current threshold of buyers' equity before commencing revenue recognition.

In determining the transaction price, the Group considers whether the selling price of the real estate property includes significant financing component.

In measuring the progress of its performance obligation over time, the Group uses the output method. This method measures progress based on physical proportion of work done on the real estate project which requires technical determination by the Group's specialists (project engineers).

The disclosures related to real estate revenue are included in Notes 2, 3 and 26 to the consolidated financial statements.

Audit Response

For the buyers' equity, we evaluated management's basis of the buyer's equity by comparing this to the historical analysis of sales cancellations from buyers with accumulated payments above the collection threshold.

For the determination of the transaction price, we obtained an understanding of the Group's process in the determination of the population of contracts with customers related to real estate sale and election of available practical expedient. We obtained the financing component calculation of the management which includes an analysis whether the financing component of the Group's contract with customers is significant. We selected sample contracts from the sales contract database and trace these selected contracts to the calculation prepared by management.

For selected contracts, we traced the underlying data and assumptions used in the financing component calculation such as contract price, cash discount, payment scheme, payment amortization table and percentage of completion to the contract provision and projected percentage of completion schedule. We also recomputed the financing component for each sample selected.

For the application of the output method in determining real estate revenue, we obtained an understanding of the Group's processes for determining the percentage of completion (POC). We obtained the certified POC reports prepared by the project engineers and assessed their competence and objectivity by reference to their qualifications, experience and reporting responsibilities. For selected ongoing projects, we conducted ocular inspections, made relevant inquiries and inspected the supporting details of POC reports showing the completion of the major activities of the project construction.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the SEC Form 20-IS (Definitive Information Statement), SEC Form 17-A and Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2025, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The SEC Form 20-IS, SEC Form 17-A and Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2025 are expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audits of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with PFRS Accounting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with PSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with PSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group as basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Alvin M. Pinpin.

2. Material Accounting Policy Information

Basis of Preparation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Parent Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as “the Group”).

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the historical cost basis, except for EIFVOCI that are carried at fair value. The consolidated financial statements are presented in Philippine Peso (₱), which is the functional currency of the Parent Company. All subsidiaries and associates also use a ₱ functional currency, except for BCL whose functional currency is US Dollar ($). All amounts are rounded off to the nearest Philippine Peso, except when otherwise indicated.

Statement of Compliance

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in compliance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRS) Accounting Standards.

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Parent Company and its subsidiaries as at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income (OCI) are attributed to the equity holders of the Parent Company and to the noncontrolling interests (NCI), even if this results in the NCI having a deficit balance. The consolidated financial statements are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other similar events. When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group’s accounting policies. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Parent Company and the following subsidiaries:

NCI

NCI are presented separately in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, and within equity in the consolidated statements of financial position, separately from parent shareholder's equity. Any losses applicable to the NCI are allocated against the interests of the NCI even if this results to the NCI having a deficit balance. The acquisition of an additional ownership interest in a subsidiary without a change of control is accounted for as an equity transaction. Any excess or deficit of consideration paid over the carrying amount of the NCI is recognized in equity of the parent in transactions where the NCI are acquired or sold without loss of control.

Material Accounting Policies

The material accounting policies that have been used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are summarized below. These policies have been consistently applied to all years presented, unless otherwise stated.

Fair Value Measurement

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a nonfinancial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether or not transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Group has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

Financial Instruments - Initial recognition and subsequent measurement

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity to another entity.

Financial assets

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at FVPL, transaction costs. Receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortized cost or fair value through OCI, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are 'solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI)' on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is referred to as the SPPI test and is performed at an instrument level. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through OCI are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling.

Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place (regular way trades) are recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

The Group subsequently classifies its financial assets into the following measurement categories:

- Financial assets at amortized cost (debt instruments)
- Financial assets at FVOCI with recycling of cumulative gains and losses (debt instruments)
- Financial assets designated at FVOCI with no recycling of cumulative gains and losses upon derecognition (equity instruments)
- Financial assets at FVPL

Financial assets at amortized cost (debt instruments). The Group measures financial assets at amortized cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and,
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are SPPI on the principal amount outstanding.

These financial assets are initially recognized at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method, less any impairment in value. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees and costs that are an integral part of the EIR. Losses arising from impairment are recognized in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income under “Provision for impairment”.

The Group’s financial assets at amortized cost include cash, receivables, receivables from related parties and deposit in escrow and refundable deposits included under “Other assets” in the consolidated statements of financial position (see Notes 4, 5, 8 and 15).

Financial assets designated at FVOCI (equity instruments). Upon initial recognition, the Group can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investments as equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI when they meet the definition of equity under PAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these financial assets are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognized as other income in the statements of profit or loss when the right of payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI. Equity instruments designated at fair value through OCI are not subject to impairment assessment.

The Group made irrevocable election to present in OCI subsequent changes in the fair value of all the Group’s investments in golf shares and unlisted shares of stock (see Note 9).

(iii) Derecognition

When the Group transfers its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or enters into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognize the transferred asset to the extent of its continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognizes an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

(iv) Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognizes an allowance for expected credit losses (ECLs) for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

ECLs are recognized in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk (SICR) since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

For cash and deposit in escrow, the Group applies the low credit risk simplification. The probability of default and loss given defaults are publicly available and are considered to be low credit risk investments. It is the Group's policy to measure ECLs on such instruments on a 12-month basis. However, when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the allowance will be based on the lifetime ECL. The Group uses the ratings from Standard and Poor's (S&P), Moody's and Fitch to determine whether the debt instrument has significantly increased in credit risk and to estimate ECLs.

Financial assets are credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of those financial assets have occurred. For these credit exposures, lifetime ECLs are also recognized and interest revenue is calculated by applying the credit-adjusted effective interest rate to the amortized cost of the financial asset.

The Group applies a simplified approach in calculating ECLs for receivables. Therefore, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognizes a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. For trade receivables, the Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience.

For ICR and contract assets, the Group uses the vintage analysis for ECL by calculating the cumulative loss rates of a given ICR pool. It derives the probability of default from the historical data of a homogenous portfolio that share the same origination period. The information on the number of defaults during fixed time intervals of the accounts is utilized to create the probability model. It allows the evaluation of the loan activity from its origination period until the end of the contract period.

As these are future cash flows, these are discounted back to the time of default (i.e., is defined by the Group as upon cancellation of CTS) using the appropriate effective interest rate, usually being the original EIR or an approximation thereof.

For all debt financial assets other than receivables, ECLs are recognized using the general approach wherein the Group tracks changes in credit risk and recognizes a loss allowance based on either a 12-month or lifetime ECLs at each reporting date.

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether there has been an SICR for financial assets since initial recognition by comparing the risk of default occurring over the expected life between the reporting date and the date of initial recognition. The Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort for this purpose. This includes quantitative and qualitative information and forward-looking analysis.

Exposures that have not deteriorated significantly since origination, or where the deterioration remains within the Group's investment grade criteria are considered to have a low credit risk. The provision for credit losses for these financial assets is based on a 12-month ECL. The low credit risk exemption has been applied on debt investments that meet the investment grade criteria of the Group from the time of origination.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Financial liabilities

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at FVPL, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. Debt issue costs are deducted against long-term debt and are amortized over the terms of the related borrowings using the effective interest method.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial liabilities are classified in two categories:

- Financial liabilities at FVPL
- Financial liabilities at amortized cost

Financial liabilities at amortized cost. This is the category most relevant to the Group. After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortized cost under the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the EIR amortization process.

Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as interest in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

The Group's financial liabilities measured at amortized cost as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 includes the following (see Notes 13, 16 and 21):

- Short-term debt
- Long-term debt
- Accounts and other payables (excluding statutory payables)
- Lease liabilities

(iii) Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

Classification of Financial Instruments Between Liability and Equity

Financial instruments are classified as liabilities or equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement. Interest, dividends, gains and losses relating to a financial instrument or a component that is a financial liability, are reported as expense or income. Distributions to holders of financial instruments classified as equity are charged directly to equity, net of any related income tax benefits.

A financial instrument is classified as debt if it provides for a contractual obligation to:

- deliver cash or another financial asset to another entity; or,
- exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially unfavorable to the Company; or,
- satisfy the obligation other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of own equity shares.

If the Group does not have an unconditional right to avoid delivering cash or another financial asset to settle its contractual obligation, the obligation meets the definition of a financial liability.

Offsetting Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the consolidated statements of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Real Estate Inventories

Real estate inventories consists of subdivision land and residential houses and lots for sale and development initially recorded at cost. Subsequent to initial recognition, these are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV). Cost includes the acquisition cost of the land plus all costs incurred directly attributable to the construction and development of the properties. Repossessed real estate inventories are recorded at original cost.

NRV is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, based on market prices at the reporting date, less estimated cost of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

The costs of inventory recognized in profit or loss on disposal is determined with reference to the specific costs incurred on the property sold and an allocation of any non-specific costs based on the relative size of the property sold.

Other inventories

Other inventories pertain to finished agricultural goods, construction materials and agricultural materials and supplies which are measured at the lower of cost and NRV. Provision for inventory losses is established for estimated losses on other inventories which are determined based on specific identification of slow-moving, damaged, and obsolete inventories.

Finished agricultural goods

Cost of processed inventories comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The costs of conversion include raw materials, direct labor and overhead costs. NRV is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and selling expenses.

Construction materials and agricultural materials and supplies

Construction materials and agricultural materials and supplies are valued at the lower of cost or NRV. Cost is determined using the moving average method. NRV is the replacement cost.

Deposits for Land Acquisition

This represents deposits made to landowners for the purchase of certain parcels of land which are intended to be held for sale or development in the future. These are recognized at cost. The deposits made are presented under other current and noncurrent assets in the consolidated statements of financial position as these are expected to be used for the Group's real estate development projects and land banking, respectively.

Prepayments

Prepayments are initially recorded as assets and measured at the amount paid. Subsequently, these are charged to the consolidated statements of comprehensive income as they are consumed in operations or expire with the passage of time.

Investments in Associates

The Group's investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method. Under the equity method, the investments in associate is initially recognized at cost. The carrying amount of the investment is adjusted to recognize changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associate since the acquisition date. Goodwill relating to the associate is included in the carrying amount of the investment and is neither amortized and is not tested for impairment separately.

The consolidated statements of comprehensive income reflects the Group's share of the results of operations of the associate. Any change in OCI of those investees is presented as part of the Group's OCI. The aggregate of the Group's share of profit or loss of an associate is shown on the face of the consolidated statements of comprehensive income outside operating profit as 'Equity in net earnings of associates'. If the Group's share of losses of an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, the Group discontinues recognizing its share to the extent of the interest in associate. The financial statements of the associate are prepared for the same reporting period as the Group. When necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

The Group discontinues the use of equity method from the date when it ceases to have significant influence over an associate and accounts for the investment in accordance with PFRS 9, from that date, provided the associate or joint venture does not become a subsidiary. Upon loss of significant influence over the associate, the Group measures and recognizes any remaining investment at its fair value. Any difference in the carrying amount of the associate upon loss of significant influence and the fair value of the remaining investment and proceeds from disposal is recognized in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

Investment Properties

Investment property is property (land, land improvements or a building or part of a building or both) held (by the owner or by the lessee under a finance lease) to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both.

Investment properties are initially recognized at cost plus directly attributable cost incurred. Subsequent to initial recognition, the building and improvements is carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization and any impairment in value while the land is carried at cost less any impairment in value.

The Group depreciates and amortizes its building and land improvements using the straight-line method over the 10-30 years estimated useful lives.

Transfers are made to (or from) investment property only when there is a change in use. For a transfer from investment property to owner-occupied property, the deemed cost for subsequent accounting is the fair value at the date of change in use. If owner-occupied property becomes an investment property, the Group accounts for such property in accordance with the policy stated under property, plant and equipment up to the date of change in use

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment, except for land and construction in progress, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value. Land is stated at cost, less any impairment in value.

The initial cost of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price including legal and brokerage fees, import duties, nonrefundable purchase taxes and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Expenditures incurred after the property and equipment have been put into operation, such as maintenance, repairs and costs of day-to-day servicing, are recognized in profit or loss in the period the costs are incurred.

In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditures have resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of an item of property, plant and equipment beyond its originally assessed standard of performance, the expenditures are capitalized as additional cost of property, plant and equipment.

The carrying values of property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstance indicate that the carrying values may not be recoverable.

Depreciation and amortization are computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives, except for leasehold improvements and right-of-use assets, which are amortized over their estimated lives or term of the lease, whichever is shorter, and bearer plants, which are depreciated using units-of-production (UOP) method.

	Years
Land improvements	10
Leasehold improvements	2-5 or lease term, whichever is shorter
Refined bleached deodorized (RBD) and fractionation machineries	21
Building and improvements	5-30
Machineries and equipment	2-10
Other equipment	2-10
Right-of-use assets	5-17

If there is an indication that there has been a significant change since the last annual reporting date in the pattern by which the Group expects to consume an asset's future economic benefits, the Group shall review its present depreciation method and, if current expectations differ, change the depreciation method to reflect the new pattern. The Group shall account for the change prospectively as a change in an accounting estimate.

Fully depreciated assets are retained in the accounts until these are no longer in use.

Construction in progress represents property, plant and equipment under construction or development and is stated at cost. This includes cost of construction and other direct costs. Construction in progress is not depreciated until such time the relevant assets are completed and is available for use.

Bearer plants

Bearer plants pertain to the Group's palm oil trees used in the production or supply of fresh fruit bunches (FFB) as its agricultural produce and are expected to bear produce for more than twelve months and have a remote likelihood of being sold as a plant or harvested as agricultural produce, (except for incidental scrap sales).

Bearer plants are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value. Bearer plants are presented as part of property, plant and equipment. Costs to grow include purchase cost of various chemicals and fertilizers, land preparation expenses and other direct costs necessary to cultivate such plants before they are brought into the location and condition necessary to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.

UOP method is used for depreciating the bearer plants. Depreciation is charged according to units of FFB harvested over the estimated units of FFB to be harvested during the life of the bearer plants or remaining contract period, whichever is shorter. The Group estimates its total units of FFB to be harvested based on the average yield over which the bearer plants are expected to be available for use. In addition, the estimate is based on collective assessment of internal technical evaluation and experience. Changes in the estimated total units of FFB to be harvested may impact the depreciation of bearer plants.

Impairment of Nonfinancial Assets

This accounting policy applies primarily to the Group's investments in associates, investment properties, property plant, and equipment and other assets excluding refundable deposits and deposit in escrow (see Notes 8, 10, 11 and 12).

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired when events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying values may not be recoverable. If any such indication exists or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's estimated recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs to sell and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or group of assets.

Where the carrying values exceed the estimated recoverable amount, the assets or CGUs are written down to their estimated recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

Impairment losses of continuing operations are directly charged or credited to operations in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

Equity

Capital stock and additional paid-in capital

Capital stock consists of common shares and preferred shares which are measured at par value for all common and preferred shares issued. When the shares are sold at a premium, the difference between the proceeds and the par value is credited to 'Additional paid-in capital' account. Direct cost incurred related to the equity issuance, such as underwriting, accounting and legal fees, printing costs and taxes are charged to 'Additional paid-in capital' account.

Treasury shares

Own equity instruments which are reacquired (treasury shares) are recognized at cost and deducted from equity. No gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Group's own equity instruments. Any difference between the carrying amount and the consideration, if reissued, is recognized in additional paid-in capital.

The retained earnings is restricted to payments of dividends to the extent of the cost of treasury shares.

Retained earnings

Retained earnings include all current and prior period results of operations, net of dividends declared and the effects of retrospective application of changes in accounting policies or restatements, if any. Dividends on common and preferred stocks are recognized as a liability and deducted from equity when declared and approved by the BOD or shareholders of the Parent Company. Dividends for the year that are declared and approved after the reporting date, if any, are dealt with as an event after the reporting date and disclosed accordingly.

Revenue and Cost Recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group is primarily engaged in real estate development, production and sale of agricultural goods, and water services. Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized when control of the goods and services is transferred to the customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The Group considers whether there are other promises in the contract that are separate performance obligations to which a portion of the transaction price needs to be allocated. The Group has generally concluded that it is the principal in its revenue arrangements since it is the primary obligor in these revenue arrangements.

The disclosures of material accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions relating to revenue from contracts with customers are provided in Note 3.

Real estate sales. The Group derives its real estate revenue from sale of lots and developed residential house and lots. Revenue from the sale of these real estate projects under pre-completion stage are recognized over time during the construction period (or percentage of completion) since based on the terms and conditions of its contract with the buyers, the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

In measuring the progress of its performance obligation over time, the Group uses the output method. The Group recognizes revenue on the basis of direct measurements of the value to customers of the goods or services transferred to date, relative to the remaining goods or services promised under the contract. Progress is measured using physical proportion of work done. This is based on the bi-monthly project accomplishment report prepared by the Group's in-house technical team approved by the construction manager which integrates the surveys of performance to date of the construction activities for both sub-contracted and those that are fulfilled by the Group itself.

Buyer's equity represents a certain percentage of buyer's payments of total selling price that the buyer has paid the Group and it is at this collection level that the Group assesses that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group because of certainty of collection of the remaining balance of the selling price. This gives the buyer, a stake in the property, the level of which is sufficient enough to mitigate the risks of loss through default which would motivate the buyer to honor its obligations to the Group. Management regularly evaluates the historical cancellations and back-outs if it would still support its current collection threshold before commencing revenue recognition. Any excess of progress of work over the right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional, is recognized under 'Contract assets' in the assets section of the consolidated statements of financial position.

Any excess of collections over the total of recognized ICR and contract assets are recognized under 'Contract liabilities' account in the liabilities section of the consolidated statements of financial position.

Sales cancellation is accounted for as a modification of the contract (from non-cancelable to being cancelable) resulting to the reversal of the previously recognized real estate sales and cost of real estate sales and reinstating the real estate inventories at cost.

Cost of real estate sales. The Group recognizes costs relating to satisfied performance obligations as these are incurred taking into consideration the contract fulfillment assets such as connection fees. These include costs of land, land development costs, building costs, professional fees, depreciation, permits and licenses and capitalized borrowing costs. These costs are allocated to the saleable area, with the portion allocable to the sold area being recognized as costs of sales while the portion allocable to the unsold area being recognized as part of real estate inventories.

Contract costs include all direct materials and labor costs and those indirect costs related to contract performance. Expected losses on contracts are recognized immediately when it is probable that the total contract costs will exceed total contract revenue. Changes in contract performance, contract conditions and estimated profitability, including those arising from contract penalty provisions, and final contract settlements which may result in revisions to estimated costs and gross margins are recognized in the year in which the changes are determined.

In addition, the Group recognizes cost as an asset that gives rise to resources that will be used in satisfying performance obligations in the future and that are expected to be recovered.

Sale of agricultural goods. Revenue from sale of agricultural goods is recognized at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally on delivery of the goods and acceptance by the buyer. The Group considers whether there are other promises in the contract that are separate performance obligations to which a portion of the transaction price needs to be allocated. In determining the transaction price for the sale of goods, the Group considers the effects of variable consideration, noncash consideration, and consideration payable to the customer, if any.

Variable consideration - rights of return. Certain contracts provide a customer with a right to return the goods within a specified period. The Group uses the expected value method to estimate the goods that will not be returned because this method best predicts the amount of variable consideration to which the Group will be entitled. The requirements in PFRS 15 on constraining estimates of variable consideration are also applied in order to determine the amount of variable consideration that can be included in the transaction price.

Cost of agricultural goods sold. Costs of sales include direct material costs, manufacturing expenses and monetary value of inventory adjustments. This is recognized upon delivery of the goods or when the control of the asset is transferred and when the cost is incurred, or the expense arises.

Water service, tapping fees, transfer fees and other water charges. Revenue is recognized over time as the customer receives and consumes the benefit from the performance of the related water services. Water services are billed every month. The Group recognizes revenue in the amount to which the Company has a right to invoice since the Group bills a fixed amount for every cubic meter of water delivered.

Income from forfeited deposits. Income from forfeited collections recorded under 'Other income' in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income is recognized when the deposits from potential buyers are deemed nonrefundable due to prescription of the period for entering into a contracted sale. Such income is also recognized, subject to the provisions of Republic Act 6552, Realty Installment Buyer Act, upon prescription of the period for the payment of required amortizations from defaulting buyers.

Rental income. Rental income arising from operating leases on investment properties is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the respective lease terms.

Contract Balances

ICR. An ICR represents the Group's right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due).

Contract assets. A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Group performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognized for the earned consideration that is conditional.

For the Group's real estate sales, contract assets are initially recognized for revenue earned from development of real estate projects as receipt of consideration is conditional on successful completion of development. The amounts recognized as contract assets are reclassified to ICR when the monthly amortization of the customer is due for collection. It is recognized under 'Receivables' in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Costs to obtain contract. The incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer are recognized under 'Other current assets' in the consolidated statements of financial position if the Group expects to recover them. The Group has determined that commissions paid to brokers and marketing agents on the sale of pre-completed real estate units are deferred when recovery is reasonably expected and are charged to expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognized over time using the POC method. Commission expense is included in the 'General, administrative expenses and selling expenses' account in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

Costs incurred prior to obtaining a contract with customer are not capitalized but are expensed as incurred.

Contract liabilities. A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. If a customer pays consideration before the Group transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognized when the payment is made or the payment is due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue when the Group performs under the contract.

The contract liabilities also include payments received by the Group from the customers for which revenue recognition has not yet commenced.

Costs and Expenses

Costs and expenses are decreases in economic benefits during the accounting period in the form of outflows or decrease of assets or incurrence of liabilities that result in decreases in equity, other than those relating to distributions to equity participants. Costs and expenses are generally recognized when the services are used, or the expense arises while interest expenses are accrued in the appropriate period.

This consist of general administrative expenses which constitute costs of administering the business and selling expenses which constitute commission on real estate sales and advertising expenses. General administrative and selling expenses (excluding amortization of capitalized costs to obtain contracts) are recognized as incurred.

Post-employment Benefits

Pension benefits are provided to employees through a defined benefit plan. The net defined benefit liability or asset is the aggregate of the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period reduced by the fair value of plan assets, adjusted for any effect of limiting a net defined benefit asset to the asset ceiling. The asset ceiling is the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plans is actuarially determined using the projected unit credit method.

The following comprise the defined benefit costs:

- Service cost
- Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset
- Remeasurements of net defined benefit liability or asset

Service costs, which include current service costs, past service costs, and gains or losses on non-routine settlements are recognized as expense in consolidated statements of comprehensive income. Past service costs are recognized when plan amendment or curtailment occurs. These amounts are calculated periodically by independent qualified actuaries.

Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset is the change during the period in the net defined benefit liability or asset that arises from the passage of time which is determined by applying the discount rate based on government bonds to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset is recognized as expense or income in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

Remeasurements comprising actuarial gains and losses, return on plan assets, and any change in the effect of the asset ceiling (excluding net interest on defined benefit liability) are recognized immediately in OCI in the period in which they arise. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Plan assets are assets that are held in trust and managed by a trustee bank. Plan assets are not available to the creditors of the Group, nor can they be paid directly to the Group. The fair value of plan assets is based on market price information. When no market price is available, the fair value of plan assets is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows using a discount rate that reflects both the risk associated with the plan assets and the maturity or expected disposal date of those assets (or, if they have no maturity, the expected period until the settlement of the related obligations).

Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale while the asset, which includes real estate inventories, is being constructed are capitalized as part of the cost of that asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur.

The interest capitalized is calculated using the Group's weighted average cost of borrowings after adjusting for borrowings associated with specific developments. Where borrowings are associated with specific developments, the amounts capitalized is the gross interest incurred on those borrowings less any investment income arising on their temporary investment of those borrowings.

For investment properties, interest is capitalized from the commencement of the development work until the date of practical completion. The capitalization of borrowing costs is suspended if there are prolonged periods when development activity is interrupted. Interest is also capitalized on the purchase cost of a site of property acquired specifically for redevelopment but only where activities necessary to prepare the asset for redevelopment are in progress.

Interest is capitalized if the properties are currently undertaking activities necessary to prepare the assets for its intended sales, including but not limited to pre-construction such as permitting, design, planning and actual land development activities and are not ready to be sold in its current condition.

Starting January 1, 2024, interest is capitalized if the properties are currently undertaking activities necessary to prepare the assets for its intended use. Subsequent to January 1, 2024, these are no longer considered as a qualifying asset and thus, the related borrowing cost are expensed as incurred.

Borrowings originally made to develop a specific qualifying asset are transferred to general borrowings (a) when substantially all of the activities necessary to prepare that asset for its intended use or sale are complete, and (b) the entity chooses to use its funds on constructing other qualifying assets rather than repaying the loan.

Capitalization of borrowing costs commences when the activities to prepare the asset are in progress and expenditures and borrowing costs are being incurred. Capitalization of borrowing costs ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the asset for its intended sale are completed.

If the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recorded.

All other borrowing costs are expensed as incurred.

Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

As Lessor. Leases where the Group retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognized over the lease term on the same bases as rental income. Contingent rents are recognized as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

As Lessee. The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets.

ROU assets

The Group recognizes ROU assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). ROU assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of ROU assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognized, initial direct costs incurred, lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received, and any estimated costs to be incurred in dismantling and removing the underlying asset, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories. Unless the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the recognized ROU assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term. ROU assets are subject to impairment.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognizes lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflected the Group exercising the option to terminate. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognized as expense in the period on which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the commencement date if the interest rate implicit to the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the in substance fixed lease payments or a change in the assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

Short-term leases. The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of office spaces and transportation equipment that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. Lease payments on short-term leases are recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Taxes

Current income tax. Current income tax liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the tax authority. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that have been enacted or substantively enacted as of reporting date.

Current income tax relating to items recognized directly in equity is recognized in equity and not in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

Deferred tax. Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; or,
- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized, except:

- When the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; or,
- In respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilized. Unrecognized deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognized outside profit or loss is recognized outside profit or loss. Deferred tax items are recognized in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

The Group offsets deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities if and only if it has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Creditable withholding taxes (CWT). CWT pertains to taxes withheld on income payments and may be applied against income tax due. The balance of taxes withheld is recovered in future period. The balance as of end of each reporting period represents the unutilized amount after deducting any income tax payable. Creditable withholding tax is stated at its realizable value.

Value-added tax (VAT). Revenues, expenses and assets are recognized net of amount of VAT, if applicable.

When VAT from provision of services (output VAT) exceeds VAT passed on from purchases of goods or services (input VAT), the excess is recognized as output VAT under 'Accounts and other payables' in the consolidated statements of financial position. When VAT passed on from purchases of goods or services (input VAT) exceeds VAT from provision of services (output VAT), the excess is recognized as input taxes under 'Other current assets' in the consolidated statements of financial position up to the extent of the recoverable amount.

The net amount of sales tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Foreign Currencies

The Group's consolidated financial statements are presented in Philippine Peso (₱), which is also the Parent Company's functional currency. For each entity, the Group determines the functional currency and items included in the consolidated financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. The Group uses the direct method of consolidation, the gain or loss that is reclassified to profit or loss reflects the amount that arises from using this method.

Transactions and balances. Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by the Group's entities at their respective functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date. Nonmonetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rate as at the dates of initial transactions. Nonmonetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined.

Functional currency. The functional currency of BCL is the US Dollar. On consolidation, the assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into Philippine Peso (₱) at the rate of exchange prevailing at the reporting date and their statements of profit or loss are translated at exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. The exchange differences arising on translation for consolidation are recognized under 'Cumulative translation adjustment' in OCI. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of OCI relating to that particular foreign operation is reclassified to profit or loss.

Basic and Diluted Earnings Per Share (EPS)

Basic EPS is computed by dividing net income attributable to common stockholders of the Parent Company less the cumulative preferred shares dividends divided by the weighted average number of common stocks issued and outstanding during the year and adjusted to give retroactive effect to any stock dividends declared during the period.

Diluted EPS is computed by dividing net income attributable to common stockholders of the Parent Company by the weighted average number of common shares issued and outstanding during the year plus the weighted average number of common shares that would be issued on conversion of all the dilutive potential common shares. The calculation of diluted EPS does not assume conversion, exercise or other issue of potential common shares that would have an anti-dilutive effect on earnings per share.

As of December 31, 2025, and 2024, the Group has no potentially dilutive common shares.

Segment Reporting

The Group's operating segments are organized and managed separately according to the nature of the products and services provided, with each segment representing a strategic business unit that offers different products and serves different markets. Financial information on operating segments is presented in Note 24 to the consolidated financial statements.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. When the Group expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed, for example, the reimbursement is recognized as a separate asset, but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income net of any reimbursement.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the consolidated financial statements. These are disclosed unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote. A contingent asset is not recognized in the consolidated financial statements but disclosed when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Events After the Reporting Period

Events after the reporting period are those events, favorable and unfavorable, that occur between the end of the reporting period and the date when the consolidated financial statements are authorized for issue. Post year-end events that provide additional information about the Group's financial position at the reporting date (adjusting events) are reflected in the consolidated financial statements. Post year-end events that are not adjusting events are disclosed in the notes to consolidated financial statements when material.

3. Significant Accounting Judgments and Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in compliance with PFRS requires the Group to make judgments and estimates that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. The judgments, estimates and assumptions used in the accompanying consolidated financial statements are based upon management's evaluation of relevant facts and circumstances as of the date of the consolidated financial statements. Future events may occur which will cause the judgments and assumptions used in arriving at the estimates to change. The effects of any change in judgments and estimates are reflected in the consolidated financial statements as they become reasonably determinable.

Judgments and estimates are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ for such estimates.

Judgments

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements.

Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group is primarily engaged in real estate sales and development, sale of palm oil and other palm products including, but not limited to refined bleached deodorized oil, palm olein, crude palm oil, palm stearin, palm acid oil, palm fatty acid distillate, and palm kernels, and water services. The Group accounts for all of the goods and services in each contract with customer as a single performance obligation capable of being distinct.

The Group applied the following judgments that significantly affect the determination of the amount and timing of revenue from contracts with customers:

Real estate revenue recognition. Revenue recognition under PFRS 15 involves the application of significant judgment and estimation in the: (a) identification of the contract for sale of real estate property that would meet the requirements of PFRS 15; (b) assessment of the probability that the entity will collect the consideration from the buyer; (c) determination of the transaction price; and (d) application of the output method as the measure of progress in determining real estate revenue.

- Identifying performance obligations. The Group has various CTS covering subdivision land and residential houses and lots. The Group concluded that the goods and services transferred in each contract constitute a single performance obligation. In particular, the promised goods and services in contracts for the sale of property under development mainly include design work, procurement of materials and development of the property. Generally, the Group is responsible for all of these goods and services and the overall management of the project. Although these goods and services are capable of being distinct, Group accounts for them as a single performance obligation because they are not distinct in the context contract. The Group uses those goods and services as inputs and provides a significant service of integrating them into a combined output. Included also in this performance obligation is the Group's service to transfer the title of the real estate unit to the buyer.
- Existence of a contract. The Group's primary document for a contract with a customer for real estate sales is a signed CTS supported by other signed documentations such as reservation agreement, official receipts, buyers' amortization schedule and invoices and it met all the criteria to qualify as contract with a customer under PFRS 15.

In addition, part of the assessment process of the Group before revenue recognition is to assess the probability that the Group will collect the consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the real estate property that will be transferred to the customer. In evaluating whether collectability of an amount of consideration is probable, an entity considers the significance of the customer's initial payments in relation to the total contract price.

Collectability is also assessed by considering factors such as past history with the customer, age of receivables, and pricing of the property. Management regularly evaluates the historical sales cancellations and back-outs after considering the impact of coronavirus pandemic, if it would still support its current threshold of buyers' equity before commencing revenue recognition.

- Determining transaction price. The mismatch between the POC of the real estate projects and right to an amount of consideration based on the schedule of payments provided for in the contract to sell (CTS) constitute a significant financing component. The Group adjusts the promised amount of consideration for the effects of a significant financing component if it expects, at contract inception, that the period between the transfer of the promised good or service to the customer and when the customer pays for that good or service will be more than one year.

- Revenue recognition method and measure of progress. The Group concluded that revenue for real estate sales is to be recognized over time because: (a) the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use and; (b) the Group has an enforceable right for performance completed to date. The promised property is specifically identified in the contract and the contractual restriction on the Group's ability to direct the promised property for another use is substantive. This is because the property promised to the customer is not interchangeable with other properties without breaching the contract and without incurring significant costs that otherwise would not have been incurred in relation to that contract. In addition, under the current legal framework, the customer is contractually obliged to make payments to the developer up to the performance completed to date.

The Group has determined that output method used in measuring the progress of the performance obligation faithfully depicts the Group's performance in transferring control of real estate development to the customers. This method measures progress based on physical proportion of work done on the real estate project which requires technical determination by the Group's specialists (project engineers).

The Group requires a collection threshold of 10% of buyer's payments of total selling price (buyer's equity), to be collected as one of the criteria in order to initiate revenue recognition. Reaching this level of collection is an indication of buyer's continuing commitment and the probability that economic benefits will flow to the Group.

Revenue recognition - sales of agricultural goods and water services. Revenue recognition under PFRS 15 involves the application of significant judgment and estimation in the: (a) identification of the contract for sale of goods that would meet the requirements of PFRS 15; (b) assessment of performance obligation and the probability that the entity will collect the consideration from the buyer; (c) determining method to estimate variable consideration and assessing the constraint; and (d) recognition of revenue as the Group satisfies the performance obligation.

- Identifying performance obligations. The Group accounts for all of the goods or services in each contract with customer as a single performance obligation capable of being distinct.
- Recognition of revenue as the Group satisfies the performance obligation of sale of agricultural goods and water services. The Company concluded that the revenue for sale of palm oil and other palm products to be recognized at a point in time when the goods are delivered and water services to be recognized over time as the customer receives and consumes the benefit from the performance of the related water services and it has a present right to payment for the services rendered.

In addition, part of the assessment process of the Group before revenue recognition is to assess the probability that the Group will collect the consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the goods sold or services rendered.

- Method to estimate variable consideration and assess constraint for agricultural goods. The Group uses historical experience from the past 12 months to determine the expected value of rights to return and constrain the consideration accordingly. The Group updates its assessment of expected returns and refund liability. Estimates of expected returns are sensitive to changes in circumstances and the Group's past experience regarding returns may not be representative of customers' actual returns in the future. As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, no refund liability was recognized in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Distinction between real estate inventories, investment properties and owner-occupied properties.

The Group determines whether a property will be classified as real estate inventories, investment properties or owner-occupied properties. In making this judgment, the Group considers whether the property will be sold in the normal operating cycle (real estate inventories) and whether the property generates cash flow largely independent of the other assets held by an entity.

Real estate inventories comprise of property that is held for sale in the ordinary course of business. Principally, this is residential property that the Group develops and intends to sell before or on completion of construction. Investment property comprises land and buildings which are not occupied substantially for use by, or in the operations of the Group, nor for sale in the ordinary course of business, but are held primarily to earn rental income and for capital appreciation. Owner-occupied properties classified and presented as property, plant and equipment, generate cash flows that are attributable not only to property but also to the other assets used in the production or supply process.

Management's Use of Estimates and Assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Revenue recognition on real estate projects. The Group's revenue recognition policy require management to make use of estimates and assumptions that may affect the reported amounts of revenues. The Group's revenue from real estate sales are recognized based on the POC which is measured principally on the basis of the estimated completion of a physical proportion of the contract work which requires technical determination by management's specialists (project engineers) and involves significant judgment and estimation.

For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, the real estate sales recognized over time amounted to ₱1,601.0 million, ₱1,528.0 million and ₱1,454.8 million, respectively (see Note 26).

Provision for expected credit losses of receivables and contract assets. The Group uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade receivables other than ICRs. The provision rates are based on days past due for groupings of various customer segments that have similar loss patterns.

The provision matrix is initially based on the Group's historical observed default rates. The Group will calibrate the matrix to adjust the historical credit loss experience with forward-looking information such as inflation rate. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analyzed.

The Group uses vintage analysis approach to calculate ECLs for ICRs and contract assets. The vintage analysis accounts for expected losses by calculating the cumulative loss rates of a given loan pool. It derives the probability of default from the historical data of a homogenous portfolio that share the same origination period. The information on the number of defaults during fixed time intervals of the accounts is utilized to create the PD model. It allows the evaluation of the loan activity from its origination period until the end of the contract period.

The Group considers an ICR and contract asset in default when the Group forfeits and repossesses the property from the customer through cancellation. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group.

The PD is applied to the estimate of the loss arising on default which is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Group would expect to receive, including from the repossession of the subject real estate property, net of cash outflows. For purposes of calculating LGD, accounts are segmented based on facility/collateral type and completion. In calculating the recovery rates, the Group considered collections of cash and/or cash from resale of real estate properties after foreclosure, net of direct costs of obtaining and selling the real estate properties after the default event such as commission, association dues, refurbishment, payment required under Republic Act 6552, Realty Installment Buyer Act, and cost to complete (for incomplete units). As these are future cash flows, these are discounted back to the reporting date using the appropriate effective interest rate, usually being the original EIR or an approximation thereof.

The resulting recovery rate coming from the above process, resulted to zero LGD, thus resulting to no recognized ECL for ICR and contract assets in 2025, 2024 and 2023.

In 2025 and 2024, the Group recognized allowance for expected credit loss on trade receivables amounting to ₱5.8 million and ₱8.6 million, respectively (see Note 5).

Estimating NRV of real estate inventories. The Group reviews the NRV of real estate inventories and compares it with the cost. Real estate inventories are written down below cost when the estimated NRV is found to be lower than the cost.

NRV for completed real estate inventories is assessed with reference to market conditions and prices existing at the reporting date and is determined by the Group having taken suitable external advice and in light of recent market transactions. NRV in respect of inventory under construction is assessed with reference to market prices at the reporting date for similar completed property, less estimated costs to complete construction and less estimated costs to sell.

The carrying values of real estate inventories are disclosed in Note 6.

Estimating fair values of financial assets and liabilities. When the fair values of financial assets and liabilities recorded in the consolidated statements of financial position cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is determined using average selling price of price per share of similar or identical assets traded in an active market. As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, the fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are disclosed in Note 23.

Impairment of property, plant and equipment. The Group performs annual impairment review of property, plant and equipment. Management is required to make estimates and assumptions to determine the future cash flows to be generated from the continued use and ultimate disposition of the assets in order to determine the value of these assets. While the Group believes that the assumptions used are reasonable and appropriate, these estimates and assumptions can materially affect the consolidated financial statements. In addition, adverse events may cause management to conclude that the affected assets are impaired and may have a material impact on the financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

In 2025, due to non-renewal of lease agreement covering the palm oil facility, which was terminated in August 2025, the management recorded impairment of related property and equipment amounting to ₱684.3 million (see Note 12). In 2024 and 2023, the Group has assessed that its bearer plants have indications of impairment due to the palm oil plantation's bearer plants not reaching their optimal fruiting stages. In 2024 and 2023, the Group recognized impairment loss amounting to ₱45.9 million and ₱26.7 million, respectively, to account for the estimated fruit loss due to some trees not reaching the optimal fruiting stages in accordance with the industry standard yield (see Note 12).

Post-employment defined benefit plan. The cost of defined benefit pension plan and the present value of the pension obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. The actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions. These include the determination of the discount rates, future salary increases, mortality rates and future pension increases. Due to the complexity of the valuation, the underlying assumptions and its long-term nature, defined benefit obligations are highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Group's retirement obligations are disclosed in Note 19.

Impairment of Other Nonfinancial Assets. The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an item of investments in associates, investment properties, input VAT and other noncurrent assets may be impaired. Determining the value in use of the assets, which requires the determination of future cash flows expected to be generated from the continued use and ultimate disposition of such assets, requires the Group to make estimates and assumptions that can materially affect the consolidated financial statements. Future events could cause the Group to conclude that these assets are impaired. Any resulting impairment loss could have a material impact on the consolidated financial position and performance.

The preparation of the estimated future cash flows involves judgment and estimations. While the Company believes that its assumptions are appropriate and reasonable, significant changes in these assumptions may materially affect the assessment of recoverable values and may lead to future impairment charges. In 2025 and 2024, total allowance for impairment losses recognized in the Group's investment in associates and other assets amounted to ₱305.2 million and ₱7.7 million, respectively (see Notes 8 and 10).

Estimating realizability of deferred tax assets. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax assets to be utilized. The Group's assessment on the recognition of deferred tax assets on deductible temporary differences is based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits determined from the tax planning strategies of the Group. This forecast is based on the Group's past results and future expectations on revenue and expenses.

As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, deferred tax assets that were not recognized in the consolidated statements of financial position since it is not probable that sufficient taxable income may be available in the future against which the deferred tax assets can be utilized are disclosed in Note 20. As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, the carrying values of deferred tax assets are disclosed in Note 20.

Costs to obtain contracts pertain to commissions owed and paid to brokers and marketing agents on the sale of pre-completed real estate units. These capitalized costs are amortized as marketing expense under "General, administrative and selling expenses" in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income over the expected construction period using the POC following the pattern of real estate revenue recognition (see Note 26).

9. Investments in Equity Instruments

The Group's EIFVOCI include golf club shares and some equity shares. The fair values of the golf club shares are determined based on average selling price per share of the assets which is traded in an active market (Level 2 input).

The changes in the fair value of these financial instruments are recognized under "Net change in fair value of EIFVOCI" in other comprehensive income.

The rollforward analysis of investments in EIFVOCI in 2025 and 2024 follows:

The Group had 20% investment in PCPC. PCPC was registered with the SEC on December 18, 2007 primarily to acquire, design, develop, construct, invest in and operate power generating plants. PCPC is engaged in power generation and operator of a 270-MW coal-fired power plant in Panay Island. The Group accounts its investment in PCPC as investment in associate as it exercises significant influence over PCPC.

On July 14, 2025, the Board of Directors of ABC Energy, Inc. (ABCEI) approved the sale of its 20% equity interest in PCPC. The divestment was undertaken to enable the Group to access additional capital, strengthen its core business segments, accelerate green energy initiatives, and reduce debt levels. ABCEI completed the sale of its investment in PCPC for a total consideration of ₱3.2 billion. This resulted in the derecognition of the related carrying amount of ₱1.4 billion and the recognition of a gain from the sale arising from the ₱1.8 billion gain on the shares sold. Total capital gains tax paid on the sale amounted to ₱348.3 million.

On September 9, 2025, the Parent Company's Board approved the sale and transfer of its entire 20% equity interest in PEI to its wholly owned subsidiary, ABC Energy, Inc. (ABCEI) amounting to ₱110.0 million which is equal to its cost, as part of the Group's energy portfolio reorganization. Investment in EWRTC

The Group has 33.33% investment in EWRTC. The Consortium composed of EWRTC and Alloy MTD Group (represented by MTD Philippines Inc.) has submitted an unsolicited proposal to the Philippine National Railways (PNR) to build and then operate and maintain the East-West Rail Project. The East-West Rail Project is an integrated light rail mass transportation system and is intended to help alleviate the gap in the transportation infrastructure in the metropolis. This project is in line with the objective of the government to increase the ratio of rail transport systems to the rocketing ridership demand in Metro Manila and other major urban cities. The Project will involve the development, design, construction, supply, completion, testing, commissioning, and operation & maintenance of the East-West Rail Project.

On October 2022, the Revised 2022 Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR) of the Build-Operate-Transfer (BOT) Law took into effect. Amendments to key provisions addressing concerns over the financial viability and bankability of public-private partnership (PPP) projects as well as clarification to ambiguous provisions may have caused the delays in the PPP process. The Consortium is in continuous coordination with PNR as the implementing agency and preparing a resubmission of project related documents for approval of the PPP project to be in line with new BOT IRR provisions. As of December 31, 2024, the Consortium has been granted the Original Proponent Status (OPS) by the PNR and is endorsed to the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) for evaluation and approval by the Investment Coordination Committee (ICC).

The following table sets out the summarized financial information of EWRTC as of December 31, 2025 and 2024:

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Group's share in EWRTC's capital deficiency amounted to ₱53.1 and ₱53.2 million. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the excess of the carrying value over the Group's share in EWRTC's net assets is attributable to the notional goodwill and translation adjustment.

In 2025, the Consortium decided to abandon the plans and developments related to the East West Rail Project due to the project's non-moving status with uncertain forward implementation. In view of this, the Group has assessed that the carrying value of its capitalized costs related to EWRTC is no longer recoverable as the project has remained inactive, with no significant progress or advancement in its development pipeline. The Group has recognized an impairment loss for the full carrying amount of the investment related to the East West Rail Project amounting to ₱53.1 million. Accordingly, the investment is carried out at nil as of December 31, 2025.

11. Investment Properties

The Group's investment properties as at December 31 are classified as follows:

	2025	2024
Land held for capital appreciation	₱544,546,572	₱492,230,588
Land and building held for lease	136,696,111	139,607,448
	₱681,242,683	₱631,838,036

The aggregate fair values of investment properties as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 amounted to ₱830.2 million and ₱805.2 million, respectively.

The fair values of the land was arrived at using the Market Data Approach. In this approach, the value of the land is based on sales and listings of comparable property registered in the vicinity. The technique of this approach requires the establishment of comparable property by reducing reasonable comparative sales and listings to a common denominator. This is done by adjusting the differences between the subject property and those actual sales and listings regarded as comparable. The properties used as basis of comparison are situated within the immediate vicinity of the subject property. This valuation approach are categorized as Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy as at December 31, 2025 and 2024. The significant unobservable input to the valuation is the price per square meter.

For land, significant increases or decreases in estimated price per square meter in isolation would result in a significantly higher or lower fair value on a linear basis.

The details of land held for capital appreciation are as follows:

	2025	2024

	2025	2024
General, administrative and selling expense (Note 18)	₱136,437,570	₱59,774,201

Bearer plants	-	636,748
	₱150,869,239	₱82,012,391

In 2024 and 2023, the Group has assessed that its bearer plants have indications of impairment due to the palm oil plantation's bearer plants not reaching their optimal fruiting stages. In 2024 and 2023 the Group recognized impairment loss amounting to ₱44.2 million and ₱26.7 million, respectively, to account for the estimated fruit loss due to some trees not reaching the optimal fruiting stages in accordance with the industry standard yield.

In 2025, due to non-renewal of lease agreement covering the palm oil facility, which was terminated in August 2025 (see Note 21) and the management recognized full impairment of the carrying values of bearer plant and other related assets of the palm oil facility of ABERDI and Nakeen amounting to ₱496.7 million. As part of management's strategic direction, this facility ceased to operate and was put in care and maintenance.

In 2025, the Board of VEC completed an assessment of the feasibility of an LNG Power Plant Project in Simlong, Batangas and concluded that the project is no longer viable due to unresolved permitting issues, grid connection constraints, and the lack of commercially viable alternatives. Consequently, the Group recognized an additional impairment loss of ₱187.6 million related to this.

Borrowing costs capitalized as construction in progress in relation to the construction of a cold storage facility amounted to ₱12.7 million and ₱21.7 million in 2025 and 2024, respectively (see Note 16).

The Group's property, plant and equipment are not used as collateral to its short-term and long-term debts.

These are noninterest-bearing and are normally settled within one year.

Retention payable are noninterest-bearing and pertains to the amount withheld by the Group on contractor's billings to be settled upon completion and acceptance of the relevant contracts within the year. The retention serves as a holdout amount withheld from the contractor to cover for back charges that may arise from quality issues in affected projects.

Accrued expenses pertain to accrued contractual services, professional fees, rent expenses and taxes and licenses incurred by the Parent Company.

Others payables pertains to interest payable and other expenses incurred by the Group.

14. Contract Assets and Liabilities

Contract assets represent the right to consideration that was already delivered by the Group in excess of the amount recognized as ICR. This is reclassified as ICR when the monthly amortization of the customer is already due for collection. The movement in contract asset is mainly due to new real estate sales contract recognized during the period and increase in POC, less reclassification to ICR.

The Group requires buyers of real estate units to pay a minimum percentage of the total contract price as reservation fee before the parties enter into a sale transaction. Payments from buyers which have not yet reached the buyer's equity to qualify for revenue recognition and excess of collections over the recognized receivables and contract assets based on POC are presented as "Contract liabilities" in the consolidated statements of financial position.

When the Group's current collection threshold is reached by the buyer, revenue is recognized, and these deposits and down payments are recorded as either ICR or contract asset depending on the right to demand collection. The excess of collections over the recognized revenue is applied against the receivables or contract assets in the succeeding years. The movement in contract liabilities is mainly due to the reservation sales and advance payments of buyers less real estate sales recognized upon reaching the collection threshold and from increase in POC.

The Group's contract assets and liabilities as at December 31, 2025 and 2024 are as follows:

	2025	2024

Capital Management

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to ensure that it maintains strong and healthy consolidated statements of financial position to support its current business operations and drive its expansion and growth in the future.

The Group undertakes to establish the appropriate capital structure for each business line, to allow it sufficient financial flexibility, while providing it sufficient cushion to absorb cyclical industry risks.

The Group considers debt as a stable source of funding. The Group attempts to continually lengthen the maturity profile of its debt portfolio and makes it a goal to spread out its debt maturities by not having a significant percentage of its total debt maturing in a single year.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, in the light of changes in economic conditions. It monitors capital using leverage ratios on both a gross debt and net debt basis. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may issue new shares, obtain loan from local banks or obtain additional funding from shareholders as additional paid-up capital or debt.

The Group is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital in 2025 and 2024. The table below pertains to the account balances the Group considers as its core economic capital:

The Group’s overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the Group’s financial performance.

There were no changes in the Group’s financial risk management objectives and policies in 2025 and 2024.

The main risks arising from the use of financial instruments are credit risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk and equity price risk. The Group’s BOD reviews and agrees with policies for managing each of these risks. These are summarized below:

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss.

The Group trades only with recognized, creditworthy third parties. The Group’s receivables are monitored on an ongoing basis to manage exposure to bad debts and to ensure timely execution of necessary intervention efforts. The Group’s debt financial assets are not subject to collateral and other credit enhancement except for ICRs. Real estate buyers are subject to standard credit check procedures, which are calibrated based on payment scheme offered. The Group’s respective credit management units conduct a comprehensive credit investigation and evaluation of each buyer to establish creditworthiness.

In addition, the credit risk for ICRs is mitigated as the Group has the right to cancel the sales contract without need for any court action and take possession of the subject real estate property in case of refusal by the buyer to pay on time the due ICR. This risk is further mitigated because the corresponding title to the subdivision units sold under this arrangement is transferred to the buyers only upon full payment of the contract price. In case of default, after enforcement activities, the Group has the right to cancel the sale and enter into another CTS to another customer after certain proceedings (e.g. grace period, referral to legal, cancellation process, reimbursement of previous payments) had been completed. Given this, based on the experience of the Group, the maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is nil considering that fair value less cost to repossession of the real estate projects is higher than the exposure at default (i.e., recovery rate is more than 100%).

With respect to credit risk arising from the other debt financial assets of the Group, which comprise cash and due to a related party, the Group’s exposure to credit risk arises from default of the counterparty, with a maximum exposure equal to the carrying amount of these instruments. The Group transacts only with institutions or banks which have demonstrated financial soundness for the past 5 years.

For financial assets recognized on the consolidated statements of financial position, the gross exposure to credit risk equals their carrying amount except for ICR and contract assets where exposure to credit risk is not significant given that title of the real estate property is only transferred to the customer if the consideration had been fully paid.

The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the carrying values of its debt financial assets except for ICR and contract assets as discussed above. The table below shows the credit quality and aging analysis of the Group's financial assets and contract assets:

The following are the details of the Group's assessment of credit quality and the related ECLs as at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Low credit risk simplification approach

- Cash and Deposit in Escrow - These are of high quality as the amounts are deposited in reputable banks which have good bank standing and is considered to have a low credit risk. Accordingly, management assessed that no ECL relating to the cash and deposit in escrow of the Group is recognized.

General approach

- Receivables (except ICR and trade receivables), receivables from related parties and refundable deposits - These are high grade since these pertain to counterparties who have a very remote likelihood of default and have consistently exhibited good paying habits. Accordingly, management assessed that no ECL relating to these receivables and deposits of the Group is recognized. This assessment is undertaken each financial year through examining the financial position of the counterparties and the markets in which they operate.

Simplified approach

- ICR and contract assets - These are high grade since these pertain to counterparties who have a very remote likelihood of default and have consistently exhibited good paying habits. Accordingly, management assessed that no ECL relating to these receivables of the Group is recognized. Exposure to bad debts is not significant as title to real estate properties are not transferred to the buyers until full payment has been made and the requirement for remedial procedures is minimal given the profile of buyers. This assessment is undertaken each financial year through examining the financial position of the counterparties and the markets in which they operate.
- Trade receivables - These are high grade since these pertain to receivables from customers who have established good credit standing with the Company. The Group applied the simplified approach under PFRS 9, using a 'provision matrix'. Accordingly, management assessed and recognized ECL relating to trade receivables amounting to nil in 2025 and 2024, respectively. Trade receivables are regarded as short-term and while there are certain accounts that are past-due, the Group evaluates the credit risk with respect to trade receivables as low as there were no history of default payments.

Below is summary of financial assets of the Group with corresponding ECL as of December 31, 2025 and 2024:

Carrying amount	₱840,688,950	₱-	₱-	₱2,547,921,350	₱3,388,610,300

Applying the expected credit risk model resulted to recognition of impairment loss of ₱5.8 million and ₱8.6 million from receivables in 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. Liquidity risk may result from either the inability to sell financial assets quickly at their fair values; or the counterparty failing on repayment of a contractual obligation; or inability to generate cash inflows as anticipated.

The Group's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of bank loans and advances from related parties. The Group monitors its cash flow position and overall liquidity position in assessing its exposure to liquidity risk. The Group maintains a level of cash deemed adequate by management to finance its operations and capital requirements and to mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows. The Group considers its available funds and its liquidity in managing its long-term financial requirements. It matches its projected cash flows to the projected amortization of long-term borrowings. For its short-term funding, this is backed up by contracts to sell and collaterals. Further, the Group's policy is to ensure that there are sufficient operating inflows to match repayments of short-term debt. In addition, the Group also has credit lines available if immediate payment is needed.

The tables below summarize the Group's financial assets that can be used to manage its liquidity risk and the maturity profile of its financial liabilities as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 based on contractual undiscounted payments:

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in interest rates, foreign currency exchanges rates, commodity prices, equity prices and other market changes.

Interest Rate Risk. Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of the Group's financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's interest rate risk management policy centers on reducing the overall interest expense and exposure to changes in interest rates. Changes in market interest rates relate primarily to the Group's interest-bearing debt obligations with floating interest rates or rates subject to repricing as it can cause a change in the amount of interest payments.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates, with all variables held constant, of the Group's income before tax and equity, through the impact on floating rate borrowings:

2025		2024
Increase (decrease) in basis points	Effect on profit before tax	Increase (decrease) in basis points	Effect on profit before tax
200	(₱28,345,320)	200	(₱25,976,066)
100	(14,172,660)	100	(12,988,033)
(100)	14,172,660	(100)	12,988,033
(200)	28,345,320	(200)	25,976,066

Equity Price Risk. The Group's equity investments in golf and club shares are susceptible to market price risk arising from uncertainties about future values of the investment securities.

In 2025 and 2024, changes in fair value of equity instruments held as financial assets at FVOCI due to a reasonably possible change in equity indices, with all other variables held constant, will increase equity by ₱2.27 million and ₱1.0 million if equity prices will increase by 1.5%.

* Excluding statutory payables

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instrument for which it is practicable to estimate such value:

- Cash, receivables, deposit in escrow, accounts and other payables and short term-debt. The fair values approximate their carrying amounts as of reporting dates due to the short-term maturity of these financial instruments.
- ICR. The fair value of ICR due within one year approximates its carrying amount.
- Receivables from related parties. Carrying amounts of receivables from related parties which are collectible on demand approximate their fair values. Receivables from related parties are unsecured and have no foreseeable terms of repayments.
- EIFVOCI. For unquoted equity securities, the fair value is determined using valuation techniques with inputs and assumptions that are based on market observable data and conditions and reflect appropriate risk adjustments that market participants would make for credit and liquidity risks existing at the end each of reporting period. The fair values are determined based on average selling price of price per share of similar or identical assets traded in an active market (Level 2 input).
- Refundable deposits. The fair values of refundable deposits are not determinable since the timing of each refund is not reasonably predictable, hence presented at cost.
- Long-term debt. The fair value of borrowings with fixed interest rate is based on the discounted net present value of cash flows using the PH BVAL. Discount rates used range from 7.7% to 8.2% and 7.7% to 8.2% in 2025 and 2024, respectively. The Group classifies the fair value of its long-term debt under Level 3.

Fair Value Hierarchy

The Group uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair value of financial instruments by valuation technique:

- Level 1: quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: other techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable, either directly or indirectly; and,
- Level 3: techniques which use inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value that are not based on observable market data.

As at December 31, 2025, the Group held the following financial instruments that are measured and carried or disclosed at fair value:

	Total	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Carried at fair value:
EIFVOCI	₱585,443,479	₱—	₱585,443,479	₱—
Disclosed at fair value:
Long-term debt	2,798,586,236	—	—	2,798,586,236

As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, there were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 fair value measurements, and no transfers into and out of Level 3 fair value measurements.

24. Segment Information

Business segment information is reported on the basis that is used internally for evaluating segment performance and deciding how to allocate resources among operating segments. Accordingly, the segment information is reported based on the nature of service the Group is providing.

The segments where the Group operate follow:

Performance obligation

Information about the Parent Company's significant performance obligation is summarized below:

Real estate sales

The Parent Company entered into contracts to sell with one identified performance obligation, which is the sale of the real estate unit together with the services to transfer the title to the buyer upon full payment of contract price. The amount of consideration indicated in the contract to sell is fixed and has no variable consideration. The sale of real estate unit may cover the contract for either the (i) serviced lot; (ii), and service lot and house and the Parent Company concluded that there is one performance obligation in each of these contracts. The Parent Company recognizes revenue from the sale of these real estate projects under pre-completed contract over time during the course of the construction.

Payment commences upon signing of the contract to sell and the consideration is payable in cash or under various financing schemes entered with the customer. The financing scheme would include payments of 10% to 25% of the contract price spread over a certain period (e.g., three months to four years) at a fixed monthly payment with the remaining balance payable (a) in full at the end of the period either through cash or external financing; or (b) through in-house financing which ranges from two (2) to ten (10) years with fixed monthly payment. The amount due for collection under the amortization schedule for each of the customer does not necessarily coincide with the progress of construction, which results to either a contract asset or contract liability.

The remaining performance obligation is expected to be recognized within one year which relate to the continuous development of the Group's real estate projects. The Group's real estate projects are completed within 6 months to 12 months, from start of construction.

Income from forfeited deposits

Income from forfeited deposits amounting to ₱18.5 million, ₱23.8 million and ₱20.0 million in 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively pertains to collections from potential buyers deemed nonrefundable due to prescription of the period for entering into a contracted sale and/or payment from defaulting buyers upon prescription of the period for payment of the required amortizations subject to the provisions of Republic Act 6552, Realty Installment Buyer Act (see Note 22).

IMPACT

About 60% (in 2025) and 99% (in 2024) of our revenue (including other income) is given back to the society through our employees, suppliers, government as well as stakeholders.

About 6% (in 2025) and 11% (in 2024) went back to the Suppliers which is part of the broader 30% (in 2025) and 57% (in 2024) payments on operating costs. About 14% (in 2025) and 11% (in 2024) also went to the government in the form of taxes and licenses. Employees shared 3% (in 2025) and 8% (in 2024) of the total revenue through salaries and benefits. Dividends given to stockholders and interest payments to loan providers was 13% (in 2025) and 23% (in 2024). The remaining 40% (in 2025) and 1% (in 2024) will be used for reinvestment for business growth.

RISK

Knowing our suppliers is as important as knowing the supplies that they provide. Continuous mapping over the suppliers is required otherwise their unfortunate outcome will cause delays in the delivery, dip in customer satisfaction and damage to the corporate goodwill.

MANAGEMENT APPROACH IN CONTROLLING THE IMPACTS AND RISKS

1. Define supplier population. We have developed a comprehensive supplier database providing visibility and real-time information.
2. Segmented suppliers into risk categories. From the data, suppliers are identified as to who shall pose a high level of risk, who are likely to disrupt operations in the event of an unforeseen event, or those whose ability to consistently meet regulatory compliance is difficult to verify, and who are potentially unstable for financial, geopolitical, or other reasons.

3. Translate the data into predictive intelligence. Based on the data, plans are in place to contend a potential risk before it arises.
4. Periodic supplier assessments. A periodic assessment of the supplier is conducted. Consistent measurable compliance standard is set and continuous verification of the supplier is done.

Climate-related risks and opportunities²

Most assets held by A Brown Company, Inc. are in areas that are less vulnerable to the effects of climate change such as flooding, sea level rise, heat waves and earthquakes. Recognition has been made that these risks may increase likely over time. Thus, the Company has ensured that investments in the different areas are covered by insurance to address damages from catastrophic events. Furthermore, the Company has engaged in adaptation measures to climate change which in turn has exploited opportunities for cost reduction. This includes implementing policies on recycling of water, utilization of energy efficient equipment, reducing, recycling and reusing office supplies and others of similar import.

With regard to ABERDI and SGAC, on the other hand, considering the critical role of agriculture in the country's economic growth and development, heavy investment in research and development on the most appropriate adaptation interventions such as development of drought resistant crops and promoting the development of water resources management infrastructure would be vital in moving forward.

Procurement Practices

Proportion of spending on local suppliers

Disclosure	Quantity		Units

Percentage of procurement budget used for significant locations of operations that is spent on local suppliers	98.74%	91.44%	%

IMPACT, INVOLVEMENT IN THE IMPACT, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Procurement practices impact our business operations and quality of services provided to our clients. The Company's business operation involves real estate development, specifically land development and housing projects. Procurement practices should be dealt with the acquisition of quality inputs (e.g. materials, labor, overhead) at a very reasonable and at lowest price among accredited suppliers in order to generate cost efficiencies.

Customers, employees, vendors, and suppliers are affected in the procurement process. Materials and supplies purchased are used by the employees in other departments within the Company. The construction of the housing project which will be ultimately owned by Company's customers also involves the building of a new community. The Purchasing Department is the liaison of the requirements of the employees and the materials, labor and overhead in the construction of houses of the customers with the suppliers.

The Company maintains a mutually beneficial business relationship with vendors and/or suppliers that uphold the core values of fairness, integrity, transparency in their businesses. Suppliers (e.g. construction materials, contractors) are required to undergo an accreditation process before they can engage in any business transaction with the Company. While cultivating such relationships with our suppliers, we must also maintain an honest, objective and efficient procurement process. The purchase of materials and services must be in accordance with the Company's procurement policies and procedures.

Among others, the Company policies and procedures state that when available locally, materials, supplies and services shall be purchased from local suppliers unless buying from foreign suppliers is proven to be more economically beneficial to the company. The Purchasing Department follows its procurement process and procedures and quality of materials are tested by the Engineering team.

IDENTIFIED RISK/S, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Disruption to our supply chain will negatively impact the delivery and quality of service to our customers. When this happens, customers, employees, vendors and suppliers are affected. Scarcity of the materials in the local market is a problem encountered by the Purchasing Department. Thus, aggressive search for potential/alternative roster of suppliers is practiced to ensure that these critical materials are readily available from an additional alternative source.

The Company's Procurement Policy adopts the processes of suppliers' accreditation and competitive bidding for significant transactions to ensure that contracts are awarded only to qualified and duly-accredited suppliers and vendors who offer the best value for money for our requirements.

Considering that these materials are supply-and-demand driven, any disruption of the supply is affected by price fluctuations. Thus, the Company has to develop a stable supplier base to stabilize prices. Likewise, the Company regularly evaluates the suppliers' performance (e.g. quality per order, timely delivery) and forecasting of requirements with reference to historical purchases and the necessary lead time from ordering to delivery.

IDENTIFIED OPPORTUNITY/IES, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

The Company's Procurement Policy acknowledges that the suppliers are essential team members in the business value chain. They deserve fair and equitable treatment, clear agreements and honest feedback on performance and delivery. While cultivating friendly and professional relationships with the suppliers, the Company must also maintain an honest, objective and efficient procurement process in all business transactions. The purchase of materials and services must be in accordance with the Company's procurement policies and procedures. The customers, employees, vendors, and suppliers are involved in this process.

Should there be adequate supplies and materials in the local market, there would be no disruption in the Company's operation. Then, it is preferable to purchase materials from local suppliers to save time and reduce cost of construction of housing projects due to delays and procurement inefficiencies.

+ - energy reduction; () – energy increment/increase

The increase in usage of gasoline, diesel and electricity is due to the picking up of real estate activities on existing and new project developments; additional energy consumption due to increase in facility activities, purchase of new equipment and company vehicles.

IMPACT, INVOLVEMENT IN THE IMPACT, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

The impact of energy consumption could be an additional greenhouse effect in the environment which occurs from our primary business operations. Likewise, the reduction of energy consumption will somehow decrease its contribution to greenhouse gas emissions. The impact of the pandemic showed the reduction of energy consumption because of quarantine that limited the use of electricity due to work from home arrangement and reduced use of motor vehicles.

Since our primary business is into mass housing production and land development, we used various types of equipment that emits carbon footprints which contribute to air pollutants.

Employees, customers, communities, and government regulators are affected by our energy consumption and energy-reduction measures.

The thrust of the management is to build and manage property in the most environmentally friendly manner possible. Considering the unstable and costly power supply, property owners are encouraged to conserve and use electricity wisely such as changing of busted fluorescent lamps with LED lights; use of more energy-efficient air-conditioning units and turning -off of appliances when not in use.

Energy conservation and resource consumption efficiency are among the key result areas that are monitored and measured for long-term solutions. The Company through its Administrative Department and motor pool maintains the efficiency of our equipment through a scheduled monthly preventive maintenance so that each equipment can be monitored, especially the smoke emission of each unit. In the acquisition of vehicles and equipment, alternative fuel-efficient models are being considered.

As solar power technology gains spotlight in the market, the company is looking for this opportunity to install roof-mounted solar power to reduce electricity consumption thus reducing as well as the operation costs while using clean energy to help protect the environment.

IDENTIFIED RISK/S, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

The inefficiencies of energy consumption affect the Company's overhead expenses and the cost of doing business. Likewise, improper storage of these materials (i.e. gasoline and diesel) could cause fire or explosion.

Employees, customers, shareholders and communities are affected by our energy consumption and reduction measures.

Energy conservation and resource consumption efficiency are among the key result areas that are monitored and measured for long-term solutions. The Company provided a division that maintains the safety and hygiene in the workplace on which these materials (i.e. gasoline and diesel) are kept.

IDENTIFIED OPPORTUNITY/IES, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

The Company looks into process and flow improvements, equipment and energy optimization measures that result in cost savings. While these measures can be initially costly and time-consuming and may temporarily pose a threat to current stable processes, there are positive results for improving environmental sustainability.

Employees, customers, shareholders and communities are affected by our energy consumption and reduction measures.

The Company is finding ways to reduce energy consumption by considering technological innovations such as using more energy-efficient lighting and air-conditioning options as well as more fuel-efficient vehicles and equipment.

Water consumption within the organization

Water consumption	921,149.83	881,571	Cubic meters
Water recycled and reused	None (0)	None (0)	Cubic meters

IMPACT, INVOLVEMENT IN THE IMPACT, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Water is an important commodity in the household ----- a necessity of life. We ensure that there's available water to provide our home owners and their family, clean and potable water supply for drinking, bathing, washing of clothes, flushing toilets, cleaning premises and many others. As a natural resource, the Company considers responsible water consumption as part of its drive for resource efficiency. For every liter of consumption, there could be communities that are potentially deprived of the water that they need given that clean and potable water is a scarce resource.

The impact of water consumption is dependent on the water supply. The higher the water consumption and the lower is the reserve water supply. If there's a lower water consumption and higher the reserve water supply, the Company will have an opportunity to extend water services to the community that are adjacent to our projects. Since our primary business is mass housing and land development to provide our customers a high valued property, the company provided its own source of water supply in each project (subdivisions).

The affected stakeholders include communities where the water supply is extracted; customers (home owners); employees and shareholders.

The Company's Construction Department monitors and maintains the water resource to provide water services and good quality of water supplies. The Company also delivers information campaigns to customers regarding water conservation tips. The Company's Operations department monitors and maintains the facility's water consumption. Water conservation programs will also be implemented. The company's Maintenance department created procedures to ensure that these risks will be mitigated before it fully occurs. Spare materials and equipment will be purchased to enable faster response whenever a water-related problem occurs.

IDENTIFIED RISK/S, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Insufficient water supply may result from water distribution line leakage and water distribution machineries breakdown. In turn, this would result in higher cost as operations are forced to find costly alternate sources. Homeowners will be inconvenienced for the failure to deliver enough water supply to the households.

The affected stakeholders include communities where the water supply is extracted; customers (home owners); employees and shareholders. The Company may incur additional operating expenditures to meet the growing water demand of the community it serves. While the community is inconvenienced for any water supply interruption due to machinery breakdown or insufficient water supply to households, the problems may create a bad image to the Company from home owners perspective and may discourage prospective clients.

The Company created a back-up plan whenever or before these risks will occur e.g. purchasing spare of the water distribution machineries and set-up a quick response team for any water related problem.

IDENTIFIED OPPORTUNITY/IES, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

We see an opportunity to conserve more water by setting up every household a rainwater harvesting facility as also encouraged by the local government unit.

The Company provides water supply in every subdivision that is being developed. In this case, as the project expands, the demand for water consumption will increase, capacity will also be increased and hopefully additional income will flow to the Company. This would provide an additional source of income for the Company, taxes for the government and sufficient and quality supply of water for the community.

The Company usually conducts first a due diligence before purchasing a piece of land for a certain project. In this way, the Company can check whether the area is suitable for drilling/deep well that can produce enough water for the future consumers.

IMPACT, INVOLVEMENT IN THE IMPACT, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

As a real estate company, the business entails the use of a significant amount of materials for the construction of houses and pavement of roads in our subdivisions, mixed-use developments and townships.

We acknowledge that materials such as cement are non-renewable and require a considerable amount of energy and emissions to produce them. In the mining of minerals needed for glass, steel, and cement production, it could impact biodiversity which will affect the communities nearby. These mineral deposits are also finite, hence conserving the use of minerals will help extend the life of these finite resources for future generations. Materials use impacts all stakeholders (e.g. suppliers, customers, employees) in general. Scarcity of materials also impacts pricing which indirectly affects the Company's competitiveness. Minimal use of consumable materials for the processes involved in the facility operation is highly encouraged.

IDENTIFIED RISK/S, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

If the resources of these materials are depleted, there would be a shortage of supply of inputs in the construction of houses. Scarcity of materials impacts all stakeholders (e.g. suppliers, customers, employees) in general.

To ensure that construction materials are available including alternatives, the Company regularly monitors our materials consumption and inventory. The designs and construction practices are continuously improved to ensure that material use is optimized without compromising quality and durability.

IDENTIFIED OPPORTUNITY/IES, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Materials comprise a large part in the construction of houses. Reducing material use and wastage will translate to financial benefit. The Company will look for better designs and construction systems to increase the efficiency in the use of materials including more renewable materials. The company will look for better alternatives to reduce consumption while retaining product quality.

As a real estate company, the business owns land-banking that are near to bodies of water or other protected areas and development of such, affecting community residents and the local government units, may require protection and/or restoration as part of its regulation.

The Company ensures strict compliance with environmental compliance certificates (ECC), environmental laws and local ordinances as well as regular engagement with the community to ensure that environmental commitments are followed through.

The Company, as may be required and applicable, will monitor water quality of well/catchment area; conduct clean water awareness campaign towards the communities around catchment area; reforestation of cleared areas; proper design of facilities; area protection through perimeter fencing/lighting and deployment of security personnel and tree planting activities within the protected areas.

³ International Union for Conservation of Nature

IDENTIFIED RISK/S, AFFECTED STAKEHOLDERS & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Non-compliance with ECC conditions may threaten the continued real estate operation of existing projects or can't be allowed to develop the area when permits are not yet secured. Thus, we apply relevant construction, operational, and resource-use permits/clearances from national and local government agencies prior to site establishment and operation.

Water pollution and disturbance of the flora and fauna when the development is near bodies of water. The community residents and the local government units will be affected by such environmental disturbance. Discontinued projects may also affect employees if there would be retrenchment. Regulators may impose a penalty for non-compliance of ECC conditions.

To address employee turnover, the Company will promote people programs on employee engagement. The Company will ensure that employment opportunities are geared towards development of employee skill sets through training, coaching, mentoring, effective retention programs, multiple and attractive benefits and fair compensation. Management succession program is maintained to identify and develop high potential candidates as possible replacements. The Company should continue sourcing for external and internal candidates for succession planning purposes.

An ill-suited employee training and development programs will lead to low performance and low leadership maturity, preventing the Company from its expansion, innovation, and competitiveness. It may also result in interpersonal conflict, communication problems; gossip; bullying; harassment; discrimination; low motivation and job satisfaction and performance issues.

The Company recently reached a significant milestone with the approval and adoption of its revitalized Vision, Mission, and Values (VMV). This strategic framework serves as the cornerstone of our corporate identity, defining us as a trusted enterprise driven by technical and service excellence for nation-building and the common good. Our strategic goals are also anchored in our corporate mission, to build businesses that uplift lives, ignite opportunities, and shape enlightened, happy communities.

To ensure these principles are woven into the fabric of our daily operations, the company initiated a comprehensive internal alignment program. This rollout involves a series of structured employee orientations and Focus Group Discussions (FGDs). These sessions are designed to go beyond simple memorization; they provide a platform for open dialogue, allowing team members to internalize the new VMV and understand how their specific roles contribute to the company's broader impact on society. By fostering this shared understanding, the organization ensures that every employee is empowered to act as a steward of our renewed corporate purpose.

Inquiry and discussion on compensation & benefits and safety & health related concerns contribute the increase on the number of consultations in ABCI i.e. New Payroll System, Labor Education Series, “Kamustahan”, On Boarding, Regular Compensation & Benefit Consultations.

IMPACT & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Good labor-management relations create a healthy workplace between the Company and its employees. This smooth employee-employer relationship will result in harmony in the work place and industrial peace. An open line of communication provides employees an avenue to raise concerns to the management and in turn management find ways to address those concerns (e.g. workplace conditions; health and occupational hazards; employee benefits). However, poor labor-management relations will affect productivity as it disrupts operation when employees who are members of labor unions will initiate strike and create reputational risk for the Company.

Currently, the Company has no Collective Bargaining Agreements with its employees.

The Company ensures adherence in the implementation of employment and labor laws and policies with regard to recruitment, employment, retention and benefits of the employees. The Company is committed to promote labor education, promote people programs, fair treatment of employees and organize employee committees (e.g. Family Welfare Committee, Safety and Health, Labor-Management Committee, Quality Control Circle and Productivity). The Company also listens to the employees through employee engagement surveys and other ad hoc surveys that are conducted by the Human Resource Development Department.

IDENTIFIED RISK/S & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

The existence of a Labor Union in the Company would be at risk of being organized anytime should concerns be not given attention. Even with the mechanism in place for addressing grievances, for example between the Union and Management, there is still the possibility that the matter may be resolved adversely against the Company, which would be detrimental to its operations.

Hostility and animosity between employer and employee lead to strikes and lockouts resulting in a decrease in productivity and low efficiency.

The Company will address these risks through a constructive and healthy relationship with our employees and Union if there's any, making sure that all concerns are heard and addressed for the benefit of all parties involved. Management should be attentive to the sentiments of its employees. The Company is committed to promote labor education, promote people program, fair treatment of employees, follow the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and organize employee committees (e.g. Family Welfare Committee, Safety and Health, Labor-Management Committee, Quality Control Circle and Productivity, Efficiency and Cost Savings Initiatives (PECSI)).

IDENTIFIED OPPORTUNITY/IES & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

The creation of Labor unions and management may provide an opportunity for an employee-employer cooperation that promotes industrial peace. The Company believes that an open communication with all stakeholders involved which includes the employees and the Unions, if any, is a mechanism to solicit feedback to improve the general management of the Company and help employees ease their burden by hearing out their needs. It is also an avenue to foster discussion to address current and potential bottlenecks in the workplace.

About 6% (in 2025) of our revenues (including other income) and 11% (in 2024) is given back to our suppliers of goods and services which are recorded in the books as operating expenses (other operating costs) and which is part of the broader 30% (in 2025) and 57% (in 2024) payments on operating costs.

Knowing our suppliers is as important as knowing the supplies that they provide. Continuous mapping over the suppliers is required otherwise their unfortunate outcome will cause delays in the delivery, dip in customer satisfaction and damage to the corporate goodwill.

The Company regards its suppliers as essential team members and that they deserve fair and equitable treatment, clear agreements and honest feedback on performance and delivery. We consider our suppliers' needs in conducting all aspects of our business. While cultivating friendly, professional relationships with our suppliers, the Company also maintain an honest, objective and efficient procurement process. The purchase of materials and services must be in accordance with the Company's procurement policies and procedures.

The Company's officers and employees are prohibited to solicit or accept gifts, payment or gratuities from our suppliers. Any financial interests in a Company's supplier or someone seeking to become a supplier must be reported to the company. The Supplier's Information Sheet contains basic information about the supplier's company, organization's owner/directors; contact person or authorized representatives; products and services offered, contact numbers, previous customers and other relevant information necessary for evaluation as applicant-supplier. After receiving the Supplier's Information Sheet, the applicant-supplier's projects when necessary will be visited by the accrediting committee which will be composed of representatives from the bidding committee and the technical group to evaluate the quality of the bidder's output. The evaluation shall be based on ocular inspection, interviews, surveys, feedback from existing customers, etc. Findings and observations during visitation shall be documented.

	2024	High Satisfaction	Aside from the Internal Quality Control Officer, the company hired a Customer Care Specialist who responds to customer concerns (house construction and documentation) from the front row. New house designs are being offered to cater to customer house requirements.

A Certificate of Acceptance is signed by the house owner signifying acceptance and conformance to the house constructed.

IMPACT & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Customer satisfaction indicates the importance of the value of the product and service provided which fulfills the clients' expectation. This great customer experience is essential to meeting overall business goals and help increase sales due to referrals of customers who were satisfied from its previous purchase. However, dissatisfaction of the products and services can affect brand loyalty and sales, ultimately hurting the bottom line. The Company's ability to keep its customers satisfied is at the core of the Company's performance.

The Certificate of Acceptance Form is being signed by the owners before they move-in to the houses, to ensure that they are satisfied with the construction of their houses. In order for the Company to ensure that houses being constructed are within clients' expectations, the independence of the Quality Control Officer from the Construction and Sales and Marketing Team was set-up for speedy actions to rectify any defects or complaints reported.

Listening and feedback tools are used to discover and identify customer pain points and how the Company's brand is enhanced or harmed by the customer experience as delivered. The Company performs post-transaction surveys through customer calls or house visits. Customer commendations and complaints are also monitored so that commitment and actions may be addressed.

Moreover, pro-active efforts are being done to satisfy customers. One of which shall be the hiring of the Customer Care Specialist who shall be front-line in responding to customers' concerns. Also, new model house units are being offered to satisfy customer house requirements.

IDENTIFIED RISK/S & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Dissatisfaction of customers on the products and services delivered can affect brand loyalty and sales, ultimately hurting the bottom line. For example, the foundation and construction of houses should never be compromised and should be built based on approved plans.

To ensure that the construction of houses is built based on approved plan, the Company's quality control and monitoring team should exert its effort to check the houses being built by the Construction Team and provide feedback should there be any work to be re-done that are sub-par based on as built approved plan. A Concrete Compression test to measure the maximum load-bearing capacity of concrete and Physical/Actual Inspection of units with the Structural Engineer is usually done to comply this requirement.

IDENTIFIED OPPORTUNITY/IES & MANAGEMENT APPROACH

Great customer experience will attract more clients by the referral of those previous clients who were satisfied with the houses constructed. This will provide an opportunity to increase sales and keeping the customers satisfied will help the Company stand out from the competition.

By using best practices in house construction, it will provide the Company a competitive advantage as compared to its peers. Also, by providing them several house design options, chances of purchase and word-of-mouth recommendations are higher.
