Re: Letter from the SEC – Office of the General Accountant dated 5 June 2026

Gentlemen:

Please be advised that on 8 June 2026, A Brown Company, Inc. (the "Corporation") received a letter dated 5 June 2026 from the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Office of the General Accountant (OGA) in connection with the evaluation of the Corporation's 2025 Consolidated Audited Financial Statements. The SEC-OGA imposed a penalty of Php351,557.05 in connection with the foregoing.

The Corporation was directed to submit proof of payment of the penalty within 10 days from receipt. The SEC-OGA also noted that the assessment of the penalty is without prejudice to the processing of the application for the registration of securities with the SEC in connection with the Corporation's shelf registration of Php12.0 Billion Fixed-Rate Bonds which is currently pending review and approval of the SEC.

Rest assured that the Corporation will discuss and resolve the foregoing with the SEC-OGA within the required period.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Very truly yours,

ALLAN ACE R. MAGDALUYO
Compliance Officer
